New Post Office At Nonantum Not Needed

Department So Advises Congressman

The GRAPHIC has received from Congressman Luce a copy of a letter sent him by the Postoffice Department. The letter reads:—

sent him by the Postoffice Department. The letter reads:—
Hon. Robert Luce.
House of Representatives.
My dear Mr. Luce:
Referring again to your letter of May 10, 1929, with which you enclosed communication from Mr. John Finelli, Esq., of Newton, Massachusetts, suggesting the establishment of a new postal station in the Nonantum District, I have to advise that our investigation does not indicate a need for such a station. Adequate delivery service is given, and this service would not be affected in any way by the establishment of the postal station. There is a good contract station located at 334 Watertown street, where for the calendar year 1928 the stamp sales amounted to only $2900 and there were received approximately 3900 ordinary parcel post packages and 9000 registry, insurance and money order transactions were handled. This service appears to have been satisfactorily handled by the contract station referred to, and there is no reason why it should not be continued.

Summarized briefly, there appears very little can be gained by the establishment of an additional postal station in the Nonantum District, and the expense of such a station would not, therefore, be justified.

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) CHAS. F. TROTTER,
Acting First Assistant Postmaster General.

$500,000 ENDOWMENT

Announcement has been made that the endowment fund of $500,000 for the Newton Theological Institution has been raised six months ahead of time, and that there is $20,000 available for renovating the school buildings and two $5000 scholarships have been established. This announcement was made by President Everett C. Herrick at a trustee's luncheon at the Newton Centre Woman's Clubhouse this week, following the graduation exercises, on the 104th anniversary of the institution.

cises, on the 104th anniversary of the institution.

The following are the names of the graduates:—Khwaha Z. H. Answare, Harold W. Buker, Joseph M. Forbes, John S. Franklin, Frederick S. Gallup, Wm. E. Garabedian, Gabriel R. Geudj, Elmer G. Hall, John F. W. Howell, Kenneth E. Morse, John M. Prior, Wm. R. Reid, Russell C. Tuck, Alice C. Anderson, Doris L. Biggleston, Marion Brawn, Florence L. Burck, and Mildred Edwards.

ASKS FOR LARGER "SOLDIERS"

Mayor Childs has sent a communication to the Board of Aldermen asking that $5300 be appropriated to add more land to the burial plot for soldiers in the Newton Cemetery. He calls attention to the fact that the present lot is half filled and asks that 10 feet more on either side and at the rear of the lot be purchased to make provision for future requires.

Miss Helen Spurrier is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Spurrier of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Spurrier of Newton. Miss Spurrier belonged to the Glee Club for three years and the Choir for four years, holding the position of Secretary for the past two years. She was a member of the Cosmopolitan Club, a club devoted to the discussion of international affairs, of which the membership of American students is limited to one half the number of foreign students. She was an active member of the Studio Club, membership in which is on the basis of ability in practical art. This year she held the position of President of her dormitory and President of the Edward's Church Smith College Club.

Local Stores Close Wednesdays at Noon

A large percentage of the stores in this city, including most of the independently owned grocery stores and markets will close Wednesday afternoons during June, July and August. Workers in most occupations today do not labor Saturday afternoons during the summer months. Many persons are enjoying the 5 day week. Store owners and their employees must work Saturday afternoons and evenings and the Wednesday half-holidays are given to allow them some small opportunities for recreation.

In past years grocery stores

In past years grocery stores and markets operated by chain organizations have closed Wednesdays in this city. This year they are not.

It is hoped that residents of this city will co-operate with the merchants who are giving their employees the benefit of the Wednesday half-holidays by doing their shopping before noontime each Wednesday during the next three months. next three months. .

Traffic Tower Lights Are Working Better

Changes Relieve Much of Previous Difficulty at Nonantum Sq.

Changes Relieve Much of Previous Difficulty at Nonantum Sq.

The signals at the traffic tower at Nonantum Square have been changed under the direction of Engineer Leo Maynard of the Edison Company and traffic is being handled satisfactorily at this point now under the guidance of the traffic officers on duty there. The criticisms made in the GRAPHIC last week against these signals are regarded as unfair by some of the engineers referred to. They state that the count taken of automobiles by Newton officials was made last November when travel conditions were radically different than at present. The system of signals was arranged to meet the conditions according to the count received. As traffic is now the number of automobiles not only is much larger, but the proportion making left turns is quite different. Street Commissioner Stuart states that he has received excellent cooperation from the Edison and General Electric engineers and he is quite satisfied with the operation of the tower.

Autoists and pedestrians must become better acquainted with the signals before things will be operating smoothly at Nonantum Square. It is certain that signs must be placed on the tower to tell pedestrians on what lights to proceed. A large percentage of those on foot appear to have no idea of what the various lights indicate. On the side of the tower which governs traffic coming from the North, the plain green light must be changed to show an arrow pointing to the left to stop blocks now occuring. Many autoists do not preceed to the left when the plain green light shows.

Elderly pedestrians complain that the time allowed for them to cross Centre Street is too short. Other minor changes will probably be made in the operation of the signals in the tower. With the intricacies of the tower which governs traffic coming from the population of the signals in the tower. With the intricacies of the tower which governs automatically is a difficult one.

Newton Boy Wins Foreign Scholarship

John Rackliffe of Country Day School To Study Abroad

At the Commencement yesterday of the Country Day School, Newton, S. K. Kerns, headmaster, announced the award to John Rackliffe of a year's study in a British university for his essay in the Brooks-Bright Foundation contest which recently closed. Rackliffe, who was graduated from the school yesterday, was judged second in the national contest by President Julian A. C. Chandler of the College of Willian and Mary.

The award came as a surprise since only one foreign scholarship had been offered by Mrs. Florence Brooks-Aten, founder of the Brooks-Bright work, who for five years has made generous annual offers to the boys and girls who competed in the essay contests. This year she has made it possible for the second prize winner to accompany the first prize winner abroad.

At the Country Day School Rack-liffe was assistant-editor of the school magazine and has previously won the Houghton prize for English style and the Cabot prize for English reading. He is the son of Mrs. John Rackliffe of 122 Shornecliffe road, Newton. Had he not won the Brooks-Bright scholarship he would have carried out his plan to enter Harvard next fall.

The Country Day School became a member last year in an essay competition conducted among schools not members of the Foundation. This membership makes it possible for the school to compete in the annual contests of the Foundation.

The Brooks-Bright Foundation was founded in 1923 by Mrs. Brooks-Aten, prominent New York society woman and philanthropist, for the purpose of furthering understanding between the schoolboys of this country and of other nations. Similar contests are being conducted in England and Canada.

ITALIAN FIESTA

On the afternoon of June 22 the beautiful Whiting estate at 11 Washington street will be the scene of an Italian Fiesta by the children of the North Bennet Street Industrial School. Their recent dancing festival at the Newton Centre Women's Club house was received with such enthusiasm that the children have been invited to repeat the performance out of doors. New dances and other features especially adapted for outdoor performance will be added.

Mrs. Frank P. Schofield of 18 Vernon street, Newton, is chairman in charge of the committee which includes also Mrs Henry M. Bliss, Miss Katherine 'Homans, Mrs Henry L. Higginson, Mrs. George H. Lyman, Jr., Mrs. Henry Lyman, Mrs. Holden McGinley and Miss Mary E. Williams.

JOHN A. ANDREW HOME ASS'N

Saturday, June 15, has been designated as the "Sons of Union Veterans and Auxiliary Day" at the John A. Andrew Home, 92 Washington park, Newtonville, when all members of the Order and their families will be welcomed from 2 p. m to 10 p. m. There will be a box luncheon with tea and coffee served free.

NEWTON RUNNERS SET 3 NEW RECORDS

SET 3 NEW RECORDS

The Newton high school track team ended its season last Saturday in a blaze of glory by returning from the third annual Massachusetts high school relay carnival at Fitchburg with sixteen points. Newton, having more than a 1000 pupils in its high school, was entered in Class D along with Mechanic Arts of Boston, Lawrence, Brockton, Medford, Lowell and other such schools. The Newton relay teams won three of the five Class D events and placed third in the other two. Not content with such a performance they established new records in all three races which they won.

A statuette was presented the winner of the largest number of points in each class in addition to banners for each race. The statuette must be won three times for permanent possession, Mechanic Arts and Medford each having one Jeg on the trophy brought back to Newton this year. The first victory and first new record was in the half-mile relay which Newton won in 1 min. 33 2-5 seconds. Bob Ewing, Carl Pescosolido, Kilburn Adams and Dick Reynolds turned the trick for the orange and black.

Bob Ewing, Carl Pescosolido, Kilburn Adams and Dick Reynolds turned the trick for the orange and black.

The second victory and second new record was in the two-mile relay. Charles Hall, Gilbert Adams, Fred Burton and Arthur Chamberlain, eard running a half-mile, turned in a time of 8 min. 36 1-5 seconds to break the record set by Medford last year of 8 min. 37 3-5 seconds.

of 8 min. 36 1-5 seconds to break the record set by Medford last year of 8 min. 37 -35 seconds.

Ewing's brilliant running on the first leg of quarter-mile relay, in which each man ran 110 yards, enabled the quartet in that event to shatter the mark of 45 seconds set by Mechanic Arts of Boston last year by three-fifths of a second. Pescosolido, Vahey and Reynolds held the advantage that Ewing had gained for them.

In the mile-relay which was won by Lawrence with Mechanic Arts in second place Coach Don Enoch entered a team composed of Quigley, Kilburn Adams, Tinker and Robert Bell, which finished third.

The feature race of the day was the two and a half mile shuttle race for the Haldie Nicholson Cup which must be won three times for permanent possession. Medford high, through the brilliant running of its captain, Kenneth Cuneo, Robert Andrews and Stanley Bowdren, was the victor with Lowell second and Newton third. The first four men in the race each ran 110-yards, the next two 220, the next two 440-yards, and the final pair three-quarters of a mile. The kowton team was composed of Vahey, Tinker, Bell, Burton, Pescosolido, Ewing, Chamberlain, Reynolds, Morse and Gibbs.

NEWTON LADS WIN

Whitmore's Second Defeat
Holy Cross, the outstanding college nine in the east, handed Howard Whitmore of Newton Highlands, Harvard pitching ace, his second setback in ten games last Saturday by trouncing the Crimson nine, 10 to 3 at Fitton Field, Worcester. The Crusaders hammered Whitmore for eleven hits in six innings before giving way to a pinch-hitter. Gene Herbert meanwhile was holding the Crimson in the hollow of his hands, allowing them but five hits. In the third inning with one on through an infield error Whitmore smacked a triple to deep right field to score Harvard's first run. Gilligan scored Harvard's second run in the seventh inning, He singled, moved to second when the next batter drew a pass, which was followed by a double steal to put Newton Tommy in a position to score on an infield out.

As the game was to be Newton's home game the orange and black out fit went to bat last. Somerville tallied once in the first inning after two were down. Pillion then passed Capt. Graham who moved along to third on Andres' wild heave to second to stop a steal and came home on Fred. Bettencourt's solid single to left centre. Art Wilson evened the count in the last of the inning with a home run to right field after Barry had fanned. Andres fouled to the catcher and Fletcher doubled to left but was the victim of the hidden-ball trick which second baseman Fannon pulled.

In the second Somerville came close to scoring. Fannon drew a pass. Gos guen laid down a bunt and both were safe when Pillion's throw to Fletcher went into the dirt and got away. Both moved along a base on Foote's roller to Fletcher. Hall hit to Barry who halled Fannon at the plate and Escott was the third out, Pillion to Fletcher. In the third Somerville took the lead, scoring one run, Grady drew a pass and Graham sacrificed him to second. Estencourt fouled out to Fletcher. Grady stole third and came home on Vitello's single over second. Fannon this for two bases as Nichols tried to nail Vitello at third and Goguen was thrown out by Wilson to stop further scoring.

Newton came right back to take the lead away. Pillion was thrown out at first. Barry singled to right. Wilson to stop the lead away. Pillion was thrown out at first. Barry singled to right. With three victories and no defeats the Nonantum A. A. leads the City of Newton Twilight League circuit in the first half of the race to determine the championship of the city and the fourth leg on the Graphic cup. Upper Falls and Lower Falls are pressing the new member of the league with two wins in three starts. The league is now composed of seven teams, the Newton Centre Cardinals having joined in the race this past week losing its first game to the West Newton Town Team which chalked up its first victory in four starts Wednesday night.

Considerable interest is being manifested in this year's race with most of the games close hard fought contests and the victor winning by but a small margin.

Captain Allie Fletcher's home with two on base enabled No. Captain Allie Fletcher's home run with two on base enabled Newton to make certain of a victory over Rindge Tech last Saturday at Russell Field, Cambridge and thereby clinch the championship of the Suburban league for the second consecutive year. Newton's nearest competitors, Brookline and Somerville had each lost three games and Newton one, prior to Saturday's games and with two remaining contests to be played. The orange and black had to win but one to make the flag certain. This they did by trimming Rindge 10 to 3.

After going down in order in the first inning the locals started in to tuck the game away. Fletcher led off with a single to right and took second when Saurausky let the hit get away from him. Nichols sacrificed and Annese singled to score his captain. Duane hit to left centre for three bases and Annese strolled home. Duane scored on an infield out. Town Club Wins Three

Town Club Wins Three

The Newton Town Club continues on its victorious path with three more victories. Last Friday evening the locals defeated the Weston Town Team, 7 to 3, at Victory Field. The visitors started off with a three-run rally in the first inning but the Newton team staged a five run rally to take the lead and were never threatened thereafter, scoring two more in the sixth to make the victory certain. On Sunday the Madison A. A. was defeated at Cabot Park diamond in a free-hitting game, 15 to 5 Home runs by Forsythe and Huwley were the features. Tuesday evening the Town Club was forced to come from behind to win from the Somerville Carlisles, 9 to 3, with Phil Forsythe and Allie Fletcher playing brilliantly. This was the Town Club's sixth straight victory. Sunday afternoon they will cross bats with the Newton Police department nine at Cabot park at 3 o'clock.

Knobbs O'Connor will be on the Sirtness and the state of the mound for the police and Hough for the Town Club. The Town club has Billy Sullivan behind the bat, Spencer deMille, Allie Fletcher, John Mullen and Phil Forsythe in the infield, and Hickey, Morris and Phil Andres in the outfield.

More than 1500 pigeons were liberated on Sunday from Lyons, N. Y., of the Greater Boston Pigeon Concourse. The bird making the fastest flight was that owned by Frank Morgan of Newton. The local man's pigeon covered the distance in 5 hours third. Barry led off with a hit through third. Barry led off with a hit through short. Wilson laid a bunt down the third-base line and both runners were safe as Phillips waited vainly for it to roll foul. Andres sacrificed the two along and Fletcher connected solidly with one of Fred Galligan's straight ones for a home run in right centrefield. The ball had not been returned to second before Fletcher had crossed the plate so lusty was the clout. Nichols singled and came all the way home on Annese's two-base hit to left.

Another orange and black tally came home on Annese's two-base hit to left.

Another orange and black tally came in the fourth. Elrod hit for two bases to centrefield. Barry drew a pass and Wilson sacrificed. Andres hit to the second baseman and the latter booted the ball while Elrod crossed the plate. Newton made its final splurge in the eighth with a two-run rally. Annese got a life and reached second when Harris at first dropped the ball. Duane fouled to the catcher but Hildreth, pinch hitting for Sutherland, connected for a single to left, on which Annese counted, Hildreth taking second on the throw to the plate. Barry drew his second free ticket. Wilson hit a fly to left which Burke made a long run to get under and then the ball bounced out of his glove, Hildreth scoring. The previous inning Burke had made a remarkable catch of a fly ball hit by Andres which looked good for at least a triple.

Meanwhile Bartlett Nichols, Newton at takking seconds.

ball hit by Andres which looked good for at least a triple.

Meanwhile Bartlett Nichols, Newton pitching ace since the passing of Bill Reilly, was coasting along in fine style. Four double plays in the Newton infield in the first four frames having saved him much trouble. In the first inning Normille single through Duane. Westberg sacrificed. Phillips hit at high foul fly to Fletcher over near the Rindge bench and the Newton captain doubled Normille as he tried to make third after the catch by a beautiful peg to Wilson. In the second with one down Anderson singled to left but Galligan hit to Nichols. Fast playing cut down both runners, Nichols to Barry to Fletcher. The third inning twin-ply killing was similar to the first. Burke singled to right and took second while Duane was tossing out Dickson at first. Harris also hit to Duane and with Burke holding second Duane threw to Fletcher for the out. As Duane threw, Burke dashed for third but Fletcher's perfect peg to Wilson beat him by an eyelash. In the fourth with one down Duane miscued on Westberg's rap but Phillips hit to Barry and both runners were cut down, Barry to Duane to Fletcher.

Rindge threatened again in the fifth, getting men on second and third with Hickey, Morris and Phil Andres in the outfield.

After the parade, the Council reported to Claffin Field, where they were served refreshments provided through the courtesy of the city. Here President Hutchinson and Commissioner Bierer circulated among the Troops, thanked them for turning out and complimented them on their appearance during the parade.

GIRL SCOUTS

The Regional Conference for 1929 was held on June 4, 5, and 6, at Cedar Hill, Waltham. Miss Caroline Freeman, Director for Newton, and Mrs. James Warren, Field Captain, attended several of the sessions. Some of the more prominent speakers were Mrs. Dorothy Dean Sheldon, who directed a tour of the Nature Trails, Miss Oleda Schrottky, who spoke on "Pageants, Plays, and Story Telling," and Miss Louise Price of the National Camping Department.

Auburndale held its final Get-Together on Monday, June 3rd, at the home of Captain Ball. At this meeting, Letters of Commendation were awarded by Mrs. George Angier, Commissioner for Newton, to Elizabeth Henrich, and Alice Furbish. The fine way in which both these girls have stood by the Jurior Troop this year, when the Senior Troop in Auburndale ceased to meet, and have shown themselves ready to give back to Scouting so much of the wealth they have found in it, is just one of the things that made Auburndale Scouts want them to receive this Letter. A Thanks Badge was presented by the Scouts to Mrs. J. Arthur Furbish, Chairman of the Auburndale Troop Committee, to show their appreciation of her loyal service. The Scout Spirit awards were presented to Alice Furbish for the Senior Girls, and Hope MacMillan for the Junior girls. A party followed the more formal meeting. Troop 15 held its final meeting.

Troop 1 Wins Raily
On 'Saturday afternoon, June 1st, the Council held its tenth Annual Outdoor rally at Claffin field before an audience of several hundred people. The Council assembled under Commissioner Bierer at the corner of Commonwealth avenue and Walnut St. At 2:40 the order to march was given and the Scouts paraded, 500 strong, down Walnut street, over Otis street, to Lowell avenue to Claffin Field, led by the Drum and Bugle Corps under Drum Major Robert Spooner of Troop 1. The American Colors of all the Troops were massed between the District; District 1 being led by Assistant Deputy Commissioner Emery and District II led by Scoutmaster Gicreas.

After the Color ceremony, the Rally was turned over to Mr. Gilcreas, clerk was turned over to Mr. Gilcreas, clerk of events and the program proceeded. After the competitive events, the Scouts of Troop 10, Waban, Scoutmaster W. P. Harris, put on a comedy First Aid stunt.

Certificates to placing Troops were awarded by President Hutchinson and Training School at Long Pond, Plymouth, will open for a two weeks course. Newton officers attending are Captain Widger, Troop 27, Newton Centre, Lieutenant Elizabeth Kilburn, Troop 5, West Newton, and Miss Ruth Fennessey, Assistant to Miss Freeman.

UNDER THE GILDED DOME

Few matters remain for the consideration of this year's General Court. As is usually the case, however, they are the most important of the year. The Boston Elevated legislation is the one thing that has caused more debate and resulted in more rollcalls than any other. Another bill is that providing for the establishment of municipal lighting plants. On both of these marked differences were found to exist between the House and the Senate with the result that committees on conference were appointed for the purpose of adjusting these differences if possible. Senator Hollis was made a member of the joint conference committee on the Boston Elevated bill.

DEBATING CLUB MEETS IN NEWTON

The ninth meeting and debate of the Brookline Debating Club, was held at the home of Mrs. T. R. Mason, Thursday afternoon, June 6th. The subject debated was, "Resolved that the world is becoming worse." The affirmative side was composed of Mrs. John J. Lougee of Newtonville, Mrs. E. T. Estabrook of Brookline, and Mrs. S. B. Holmes of Brookline, The negative side was represented by Mrs. G. A. Codman of Brookline and Mrs. T. D. Whitney of Beacon Hill, Boston. The judges were, Prof. E. T. Massey, Dr. E. T. Merrill and Mrs. R. D. Cadman. The affirmative side won the debate,

E. T. Merrill and Mrs. R. D. Cadman.
The affirmative side won the debate, and much credit was given Mrs John L. Lougee who took the rebuttal. At the conclusion of the debate, Mrs. Lougee answered many questions from the audience, relating to the subject, and was generously applauded for her scintillating answers.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LECTURE

John Randall Dunn, C.S.B., Authorized Christian Science Lecturer, Speaks To Large Audiences At Community Theatre, Newton, and at First Church of Christ, Scientist, Newtonville.

Later we find Jesus of Nazareth, after his forty days and forty nights in the wilderness, bringing that glorious healing message, the Sermon on the Mount and later healing all manner of sin, disease and death. Now, after centuries of darkness, we find Christian Science, another message to all mankind, bringing healing and regeneration, and leading out of the wilderness of inconsistent beliefs about God and man into the light of spiritual man, into the light of spiritual and man, into the light of spiritual Truth.

That this Truth may properly come before the world, members of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Boston, have been commissioned under the Manual of The Mother Church to "prepare the way of the Lord, and make His paths straight."

We are going to have the privilege of listening to a member of this Board of Lectureship this afternoon. The title of the lecture assures us of a healing message—"Christian Science, The Liberator of Mankind." It will tell us of our present rightful freedom. First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Newton, is your host and bids you a cordial welcome. To paraphrase one of our thymns, let us open wide the doors of our thought and let in the light of Truth. So shall we find the peace "which passeth all understanding." It is now my happy privilege to introduce the lecturer, Mr. John Randall Dunn, of Boston.

Mr. Dunn spoke as Iollows:

Mr. Dunn spoke as tollows:

The widespread interest in the subject of Christian Science, in this and other lands, is traceable directly to the fact that enslaved mortals are finding in its spiritual teaching that liberator graphically pictured by Isaiah as sent "to preach good tidings unto the meek". to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound." The attempts of some misinformed critics to prove that Christian Science is not this liberator, that the sick are not healed, the sinning reformed, nor the sorrowing comforted through its ministrations, are of course of little moment in the presence of an ever-increasing host of witnesses testifying to the fact that whereas they were bound physically, mentally, or morally, now they are experiencing through the leachings of Mr. Dunn spoke as follows:

The lecture on Christian Science at the Community Theatre, Newton, last Sunday afternoon drew, what was probably, the largest audience ever seen there. So many were turned away that the lecture was repeated the same afternoon in the Christian Science Church in Newtonville where a second audience heard it.

The lecturer was introduced by Francis W. Davis, the First Reader of the Newton church, in these words:
In the third chapter of the Gospel of Matthew, we find John the Baptist preaching to multitudes in the wilderness of Judea and crying, as was prophesied by Isaiah, "Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make His paths straight."

Later we find Jesus of Nazareth, after his forty days and forty nights in the wilderness, bringing that glorious healing message, the Sermon on the Mount and later healing all manner of sin, disease and death. Now, after centuries of darkness, we find Christian Science, another message to all mankind, bringing healing and regeneration, and leading out of the wilderness of inconsistent beliefs about Goal and man, into the light of spiritual that Gomes in the community of the mother ness of inconsistent beliefs about Goal and man, into the light of spiritual that Gomes and the community of the wilderness of inconsistent beliefs about Goal and man, into the light of spiritual that God is indeed able to saddened and fearing children of men with all the tenderness of the mother-thought, that God is indeed able to care for His creation, to heal and to save? We have only to remember the pure Jewish maiden, whose uplifted sense beheld, and brought into demonstration, the fatherhood of God; the repentance and gratitude of the Magdalen; the faithfulness of the women 'last at the cross and first at the sense. "last at the cross and first at the se-pulchre"; and likewise the fidelity and devotion of the woman-thought through all the centuries to that which points to faith and purity,—we have only to remember these, should the human remember these, should the human mind find it difficult to accept the fact that Truth has spoken to this age

PREJUDICE AGAINST MRS. EDDY
I regret to confess the fact that before I knew anything about Christian Science, before I had read a line of its authorized literature, or attempted to prove by demonstration its truth or its error, I was one of that now rapidly decreasing number of persons who seem to take special delight in making flippant and unchristian remarks about Mrs. Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, and in laughing at the movement in general.
I was quite sure that Christian Scientist worshiped Mrs. Eddy and that her system of healing was only will-power or the human mind over matter. In fact, my fund of information as to what Christian Science does not teach, reminds me of the immigrant applying for admission to this country, who was asked if he was familiar with the Constitution of the United States, He replied: "Indeed I am. I learned to

They will tell you with eyes dimmed with tears of gratitude that they know that the woman who penned the words that brought such healing to their home must have walked and talked with God!

PRESENT-DAY SALVATION
Christian Scientists know that Mrs. Eddy did not originate Christian Science agrees promptly with this statement, and asks, but does want of Glieda which she has revealed for the healing of the nations is not of her creating, nor is it a restatement of ancient or modern material philosophy. It is the simple, unadulterated message of salvation from sin, disease, and death taught by the Master and his apostles and the prophets who preceded them. I once asked a woman seeking help in Christian Science if she understood the meaning of the free and at all. The Apostle Paul makes this clear in his famous statement in Romans, "They which are the children of the fish, these are the children of the fish, these are

CHISTAN SCIENCE NOT SCIENCE NO

"If what you say is true," replied the other, "there must be two of mether of this gypsy here, and the son of a king, —I don't know where he is."

Many turn to so-called stimulants because they crave a feeling of well-being, supposed to follow in the wake is only one of you, and I am telling you about that one. That one is the son of our king."

Then said the young man, and he confidently expected that this question would settle the matter: "If I really am this son of the king, where did the gypsy come from?"

The friend replied that he would discuss the question of the gypsy no turther, for he was not a gypsy: in Christian Science, therefore, is not cast the child under some shrubs where she could not see it die, and hopelessly resigned herself to her seemingly hopeless fate. There seemingly ho months $141 was paid in on each share and the bank added $59.47 in in 7; was then approached, and it was found that they would gladly give the labor for planting the hedges, and laying down the paths, a very considerable part of the expense budget. By this time the idea was rolling along under its own momentum. Generous clitzens began to offer donations, some of considerable size, the Girl Scouts wanted to do their bit, and sent in a check, and many garden owners offered plant material, iris, peony roots and other hardy perennials.

At last everything was in sight except the sun dial. That central feature, which would be the high light of the garden, was not to be found. Of course, if everything else came, that could wait. Perhaps it would be the project of next years club work. But no! This very week, four daughters of a mother who loved gardens and books, have decided that there could be no more perfect way to make that mother's memory vital, than by donating a sun dial for this Library garden. For years to come, the charm of her gift will be a joy to new generations of beauty lovers.

And so the garden grew, and when it is dedicated sometime this month all will see how generous impulses guided by careful thought can turn dreams into flowers, and hopes into realities.

GENERAL FEDERATION

BIENNIAL COUNCIL. After having invited the Clubwomen of the United States, one might almost say of the world, since delegates came from several far countries, to enjoy a week in May in a climate that is always scheduled to be perfect for activities in that month, the weather played a most unkind trick upon the hostess Federation of Massachusetts, giving the hottest week ever recorded, and typical of July rather than of May for this part of the country. Yet, in spite of the heat, sessions went forward with vimand enthusiasm in the Convention Hall at Swampscott, and pleasures planned were carried through.

No more widely different could have been the two offerings of the Biennial Council, on one side the serious pur-ineat, sessions we in force of control and its Swampsott, and pleasures planned were carried through.

No more widely different could have been to be a state of the serious purpose of business and on the other most claborate and delightful social functions. Both illustrated fully the character and charm of the women in official stations. Surely it symbolized a balance attained that speaks eloquently of the study that women gave to their new obligations as citizens of the United States, and of the women in official stations. Surely it symbolized a balance attained that speaks eloquently of the study that women gave to their new obligations as citizens of the United States, and of the word. Not only have they retained—and they grace every occasion with even more beauty and poise than when this side of their life was the only one—the gracious mess of the mistress of hospitality, set about learning the details and aims of their new duties.

No report can give adequately the delightful friendliness and the hospitality set about learning the details and aims of their new duties.

No report can give adequately the delightful friendliness and the hospitable courtesies entended. These can only be touched upon in a few of the personal bits that may indicate somewhat this part of the week's events. Neither can any report give in adequate detail the wealth of valuable, presented throughout these concentrated sessions, by officers of departments, and by speakers especially presented throughout these concentrated sessions, by officers of departments, and by speakers especially presented throughout these concentrated sessions, by officers of departments, and by speakers especially presented throughout these concentrated sessions, by officers of departments, and by speakers especially presented throughout these concentratived seasons, by officers of departments, and by speakers especially presented throughout these concentratived seasons, by officers of departments, beautiful and concentrative to the present of the features th formed the screening "footlight" behind which sat the many officers of the General Federation. Two microphones, into which the speakers gave their messages with ease and assurance, attested the modernism of the convention.

About 800 delegates were present at the opening session, but this number increased to over 1,400 before the week was over, and to this was added again nearly 1,500 Clubwomen who came from their homes daily. These represented Clubs over 14,000 affiliated with the national organization, with a membership of over 2,500,000.

In her report of the year's work of her organization, Mrs. John F. Sippel, president, greatly amused her auddence by saying that when her physician learned that she had travelled over 40,000 miles making personal visits to State Federations he told her that is expended by a presidential candidate. Incidentally, it was learned later, while discussion of raising a fund for the work of this organization was going forward, that the president has to spend about $6,000 a year for her own expenses connected with her official position.

the action construed it as being antifeministic.

So that now the Federation's position has been made doubly clear by Mrs. Sippel's resolution in which she stated that "women have come to share equally with men the responsibilities of the electorate and are coming into legislative halls in increasing numbers and assuming judicial responsibilities and should logically have a larger share in the administrative offices where the policies of the executive departments of government are formulated, therefore the General Federation of Women's Clubs recommends to the President the appointment of qualified women to such positions."

The observance of the Sunday preceding Thanksgiving Day as American Home Sunday, sabbatical leave for elementary and secondary public school teachers, the All-American exhibition of sculpture now in progress in San Francisco and a national Authors' Day were among the projects receiving favorable attention from the delegates.

Plans for inter-American co-operation, including the possibility of convening the 1931 Council meeting in Panama, were discussed. If the tion, including the possibility of convening the 1931 Council meeting in Panama, were discussed. If the Council goes to Panama, it will be its erai rederation and the other hall will be turned back to the Clubs raising the money.

The money is to be raised from the membership entirely and the methods employed will vary according to the individual wishes of State Federations.

The amount that now comes into the national treasury from the tencents-per-member tax on annual dues does not by any means pay for the ambitious projects which have made the Federation an educational power.

The Federation's progressive undertakings have been-carried on, it is well known to members, though this fact was not brought out in today's discussion, by the heads of departments and the officers dipping into their own pockets. This means self-denial on the part of officers, or else that the officers chosen must be wealthy women.

The States, one by one, voiced approval of the plan, and named the amounts they would pledge.

The length of sheets also occupied the minds of Club women of the country this morning.

Before they were half-awake they were trying to decide on the sheets. The questions came in their early mail to be answered before night. What they say will be taken as a fair indication of the way the woman's mind goes on standardization.

Will they or will they not accept 108-inch sheets? Would they object strenuously if every sheet on the market had a one-inch hem?

The size of the sheets has caused more of an uproar in the convention than all the highbrow topics approached thus far. The Club women were in a quandary about it.

If they answer "yes," will they eventually have to buy uniforms instead of different ensembles? Where will standardization lead?

The country is the sickest place on land, contrary to the supposed healthfulness in the wide open spaces, according to Dr. W. F. Draper, Assistant Surgeon General of the United States Public Health Service. Dr. Draper announced that there are about 1,000,000 persons in rural communities incapacitated all the time by sickness, much of it preventable.

Gov. Tobey of New Hampshire was the speaker on Wednesday morning, after the business session. He dealt with the importance in these days of electric power, of women studying the subjects, including the laws to regulate and control power companies, the demands for wider distribution of service, and always the matter or rights, "complicated, but tremendously important".

"These things are challenges to your energies and your minds."

But this Summer I am getting nervous. Several things have come up which make me think I might be not only as well but a triffle better off if I remained out of town for a while. I certainly have not enough pairs of shoes to have any of them destroyed permanently by the tar on the streets. I have in times past scraped tar off my shoes, but there is too much now and it's too deep. One cannot avoid getting covered or at least getting one's footwear all plastered.

Then there's the mess that the traffic tower in Nonantum square has made or rather that some people have made of it. Of course that will be straightened out—but when? If it takes as long to devise a scheme for getting the proper lighting equipment in good working order as it has to get the tower built we will find that next Christmas the only lights on the tower will be those used to decorate it for the holiday. The regular traffic signal lights won't be ready as soon as that.

such an understanding as the friend had who knew that the prince was not a gypsy. To refer to this simile again, suppose the prince had said to the friend, "Won't you pray for me, that I may be healed of this gypsy-sense?"

Could one picture the friend then addressing the Almighty and imploring Him to remove the gypsy? Such a prayer indeed would be asking amiss. That friend clings to the facts—communes, if you will, with the truth as to the prince's being, and refusing to be swayed by the sense-testimony, eventually dispels the other's ignorance. And what would be the first sign of an awakening with the prince? Would it not be an expression of joy and gratitude on meeting his parents and learning his real status? So the prayer that dispels the mesmerism of sickness, of pain, of helplessness, must not begin with such a phrase as, "O God, who hast seen fit to visit the a song of thanksgiving that a loving Father hath already done all things well, and that His law never causes disease, but annihilates it. Did not Jesus preface his mighty work at the tomb of Lazarus with the words, "Father, I thank thee"? Gratitude, therefore, is not only a pleasing quality to possess, but is the precious forerunner and certain symbol of an awakening from the Adam-dream of discord and distress.

AN INSTANCE OF HEALING
A woman suffering from what the physicians called tuberculosis, and particularly harassed with a wretched cough, turned to a Christian Science practitioner for help. Faithfully did the Scientist strive to awaken a sense of gratitude in the patient, but all to no avail. The patient was a gypsy, and that settled it. What was there to be grateful for in that? Finally one night, when the poor woman was about worn out with the cough, the light broke in upon her thought and she said aloud: "Now I know what I can thank God for! I can at least thank Him that I know that He never made a cough or laws of disease! I can thank Him for that!" After this, an even more violent spell of coughing seemed to overtake her. Calmly she addressed the error: "I refuse to be dismayed, and I refuse to fight you any longer, I am thanking God that you aren't happening!" Soon like a babe, she dropped off into a sweet sleep, and from that moment began the liberation. Within a short space of time she was whole. A miracle? No, the morning light of gratitude broke into the dark chamber of ignorance, and she awoke to find herself not a diseased mortal, but the joyous, free child of the King.

THERE IS NO DEFEAT

"And yet," says someone, "Christian Scientists have passed away. What do you say about that?" The Christian Scientists have passed away. What do you say about that?" The Christian Scientists have passed away. What do you say about that?" The Christian Scientists have passed from sight clingment of the progress already and the refuses to admit that dose who have passed from sight clingment in over evil by reason of each step some down to defeat. They must be gone down to defeat the world cannot comprehend, in the realization that God's children are not separated, not any matter what sense-testimony argues, and that the loving Father-Mother of a least of bliss together. More and more are Christian Scientists learning to look the so-called "last enemy" in the face moved. "Behold," said the Master, "I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you." And our beloved Leader has given us a wonderful correlative statement in a letter which she wrote to a student, which was quoted in The Christian Science Journal of August, 1912, "Did you but know the sublimity of your hope; the infinite capacity of your being; the grandeur of your outlook, you seem slow? Thank God we have heard that materiality with its ills and being; and are we being truly grate, ful for that? It is well to realize that gratitude is the sure symptom of an awakening; but ingratitude, impatience, and discouragement can mean only a prolonged slumber.

Science, the liberator of mankind, echoes this clarion call of Scripture: "Awake, awake; put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city:

Shake thyself from the dust;

Loose thyself from the dust;

The Newton Kiwanis Club plans to unite in spirit with all members of Kiwanis whether present at the convention or club meeting for the All-Kiwanis night on June 24. It is planned to hold meetings of all the clubs at the same time that the All-Kiwanis night is being observed by the International Convention in Milwaukee. Definite plans for this event have not been completed but it is anticipated that the Newton Club will join with some of the neighboring clubs or act as host on that occasion.

The Key to obtaining electricity at a lower rate is in your electric bill. Look at this month's bill - and then find out what it shows about the current you used.

> A little simple arithmetic will show you what your average price has been for the month.

Do this:

Divide the total amount of the bill by the kilowatt hours shown. This will give you the average rate you paid for the month.

Then do this:

Compare YOUR average rate with the average rate of ALI. our Resident customers for April, 1929, which was 6.73 cents per kilowatt hour.

Do you realize that your rate can be reduced by the every-day use of appliances and the freer use of light, whether you are a large or small customer?

Some of our customers have reduced their average cost to 31/2 and 4 cents per kilowatt hour. How? By doing more things electrically. Appliances, used daily, increase the number of kilowatt hours used but decrease the price per kilowatt hour. Electricity does your work more cheaply and you pay a lower rate the more you use. '

Use electricity to its fullest advantage and save on your electric bills. The extra saving on your food bill, servants' wages, outside expenses such as laundry, cleaning, etc., will more than pay for any increased use you make of electricity.

Think this over . . . the answer is in your electric bill and a little arithmetic will show you how you can actually lower your rate.

This was presented because Mrs. Clarence Glazier of that Club was official hostess for Mrs. Lawson.

It seemed that nearly every one of the 1431 people who had registered for the Convention must have passed by the receiving line at the conclusion of the evening when Gov. and Mrs. Allen were present. Tuesday Mrs. Sippel and Mrs. Packard headed the procession of notables who proceeded into the ballroom of the hotel for this function, and as they were about to enter the doorway, to the music of the orchestra, huge bouquets of roses and other flowers were pressed into their hands by members of the committee awaiting them there.

For this event, Mrs. Sippel chose a gown of cloth of gold, and Mrs. Packard, a cream white gown with a contrasting touch of jade necklace, bracelet and matching satin slippers. Mrs. Allen wore a chiffon frock of pale pink embroidered in flowers. It was earlier in the evening that the Governor had presented the Federation president with small gold pin bearing the seal of the state of Massachusetts, just before beginning his speech in Convention hall.

Immediately Mrs. Sippel turned to Mrs. Allen, and asked her to pin it on. Thereafter that tiny pin appeared on the president's gown at each ses-

MAY HEALTH REPORT

MAY HEALTH REPORT

The report of the Newton Board of Health for the month of May shows that there were 41 cases of measles, 33 cases of whooping cough, 14 cases of scarlet-fever and 7 of chicken-pox reported in this city during that period. Forty-three deaths occurred in the city during the month, two of which were caused by automobile accidents and two by fatal burns. The Sanitary Division of the Health Department investigated 24 complaints, abated 36 nuisances and made 149 inspections. The Milk and Food Division tested 25 samples of milk, inspected 198 markets and provision stores and 28 bakeries.

Hearings Planned On Re-Zoning Land

Changed

City Clerk Frank Grant and his assistants are very busy again preparing lists of property owners in this letty to whom notices will be mailed gregarding hearings which will be held next month at City Hall on the matter of changing much of the general gresidence sections to private residence of last year the hearings this year will deal with different parts of the city rather than having one hearing for the entire city. On July 8 the Claims and Rules Committee of the Aldermen will hold a hearing to consider the proposed changes in Wards 1, and 7. On July 9 the hearing will be on the proposed changes in Wards 2, 3 and 4. On July 10 the hearing will be on Wards 5 and 6. The hearing held on December 14, 1928 was so largely attended that many persons were unable to gain admittance to the Aldermanic Chamber at City Hall where the zoning changes were discussed.

At that hearing it was evident that

Hall where the zoning changes were discussed.

At that hearing it was evident that many citizens had very confused ideas on the matter. Some appeared to protest whose properties were not affected. Others feared they could not build two-apartment dwellings should their property be placed in a private residence zone. This is not so. The main objects for which the changes are sought are—to prevent apartment houses from being erected promiscuously throughout the city to the detriment of attractive residence districts; to prevent existing estates the detriment of attractive residence districts; to prevent existing estates from being sub-divided into small house lots on which cheaply constructed dwellings will be crowded by speulative builders who have exploited Newton since the building boom started here eight years ago. The present use of existing buildings will not be affected by the changes and dwellings may be erected just as near the street lines as any existing building located within 250 feet, provided no intersecting street intervenes.

Rev. Laurens MacLure, D.D., of frace Church, Newton, gave the bac-alaureate address on Sunday evening to the graduating class of Hobart Colto the graduating class of Hobart College at Geneva, New York, He advised Hobart men to hold up their heads because they are as well educated as the graduates of Harvard or the other larger universities. He said, "Go out and meet the world as Hobart men with courage and faith. Banish difficulty within you and you will not find so many without. Difficulty, after all, is a something within us." Other remarks made by Dr. MacLure in his address were—

Nonantum Industries Seek New P.O. There

Petition Sent to Congressman Luce
For New Station

Editor, Newton Graphic,
Newton, Mass.
Dear Sir:
I have read in the last week's publication of the Newton Graphic the letter of the Acting First Assistant Postmaster General addressed to Congressman Luce similar to the one sent to me, containing the following paragraph.

"There is a good Contract Station located at 334 Watertown street, wherefor the calendar year of 1928 the stamp sales amounted to only $2,900.00, and there were received approximately 3,900 ordinary parcel post packages, and 9,000 registry, insurance and money order transactions were handled. This service appears to have been satisfactorily handled by the Contract Station referred to, and there is no reason why it should not be continued."

In order that the readers of the Newton Graphic may be fully informed of the postal situations in Nonantum, I would say that unless one lives or does business in Nonantum he cannot appreciate the deplorable condition of postal service that exists there. In Nonantum we have the following industries: Earnshaw Knitting Mills, Futurity Mills, National Packaging Machinery Co., Belger Co. Inc., Raytheon Manufacturing Co., Bedford Knitting Mills and other smaller industries, and because of the limited supply of stamps and other necessaries carried by the Contract Station these industries and individuals are forced to patronize the Newton Corner post-office or Newtonville post-office. The Contract Station is conducted by a local busy drug store, whose chief duty and interest is to attend to the trade rather than sell stamps, fill money orders, or register mail, and that accounts for the scarcity of postal business stated in the above paragraph of the Acting First Assistant Postmaster General.

stamps, ill money orders, or register mail, and that accounts for the scarcity of postal business stated in the above paragraph of the Acting First Assistant Postmaster General.

The Earnshaw Knitting Mills alone is buying on an average of $900.00 to $1,000.00 worth of stamps per week, and when the Ratheon Mfg. Co. will be running in full force a similar amount will be used by them in maling their parcel post packages.

I asked the postal authorities why these industries and business men of Nonantum should be subjected to travel a mile and a half from their place of business in order to get their post, money orders and register their mail. A petition signed by all these industries and business men has been sent to Congressman Luce asking for improvement of a postal service in Nonantum and a favorable outcome is expected.

s expected. The citizens of Nonantum would like The citizens of Nonantum would like to ask the postal authorities what business is there in Newtonville and West Newton, and other villages of the city that warrants them to have a postal station, and none in Nonantum, which is the industrial centre of the City of Newton. I leave it to the readers of the Newton Graphic to answer this question.

Very truly yours, JOHN FINELLI.

ITALIAN FIESTA

On Saturday, June 22, at 4 p. m., the grounds of the beautiful Whiting Estate, 11 Washington street, Newton, will be thrown open to the public, the occasion being an Italian Fiesta by the children of the North Bennet Street Industrial School.

These children recently took part in the thirteenth annual performance given by the school in Newton, at the Newton Centre Women's Club House, and so enthusiastically was their dancing received, that they have been asked to repeat the dances out of doors. The play included in the indoor entertainment is necessarily omitted, but its place will be taken by several new dances and Italian novelties planned especially for the Fiesta.

J. B. Jamieson Sr. Guest of Governor of Hawaii on Sea and Air

his annual visits to Honolulu Mr. Jamieson has developed a skill in landing these gamey fish that has won for him considerable reputation. To catch a 135 swordfish as Mr. Jamieson did was no easy task and one which many younger men would find impossible of accomplishment.

The newspapers there say that the Governor's fishing party off the Kona coast was a "huge success" and they are credited with having done a "noble job." There were five members of the party. Mr. Jamieson caught in five days a total of 217 pounds. There was only one higher string. Mr. Jamieson gave the fish to the Rotary Club and 110 men pronounced it "fine eating."

owners on these two streets for many years.

Mrs. Isabella Kenna of 21 Peabody street objected to the permit being granted for the automotive building. She told the aldermen that she is a widow with several children dependent upon her, that her property will be her principal source of income and its value will be much depreciated should any automobile salesroom be built across from it. Referring to the congested condition of Peabody street because automobiles are parked there all day long and during the evenings. Mrs. Kenna stated that formerly there was a 30-minute parking limit on this street but one night city employees "came and stole the limited parking signs." She expressed a preference for an apartment house on the site rather than an automobile building. Mrs. Kate Terrell of 14 Peabody street, also a widow with two children dependent on her, objected because she believes that if a service station is placed near her property it will not be possible for her to rent rooms. She stated there are 30 children residing on the street who will be menaced should more traffic come on it.

Miss Bernie Veinot of 17 Peabody street objected to the granting of the permit. She called attention to the fact that of the 10 houses on Peabody street, 6 are owned by widows and one by a middle-aged single lady, all of whom must work hard for livelihoods and all of wnom are old taxpayers. She argued that it is not right for newcomers to arrive in the neighborhood with a proposition that will injure the values of properties owned by the oldtimers there. She asserted that even now Peabody street is so filled with parked cars that residents there can find no room to park in George Lane of 14 Bacon street called attention to the extreme narrowness of this street. The Waltham buses run along it, many automobiles use it to avoid the traffic congestion at Nonantum square, and should the permit be granted for a service station which would have its entrance and exit on Bacon street a positively dangerous situation would be caused. Despite Mr. Hayden's assertion that no night work would be done in the station, Mr. Lane believes that not only night work would be done in the station, Mr. Lane believes that not only night work but also work on Sundays would disturb the neighborhood. He commented that it is not the fault of the city if the Newton Mortgage Corporation has a white-elephant on its nands and owners of nearby properties should not be penalized to help the petitioner. Asked as to what use he hought the vacant building on Bacon street might be put to, Mr. Lane sugested that it would make a good location for a restaurant or could be used by some large store which could have in entrance to it through one of the maller stores in the Washington Suilding.

Gilligan Hitting for .344

With Boston University and Northeastern Universities having completed their respective baseball seasons Harvard is the only college nine now playing and using a former Newton high player in its line-up. Tommy Giligan, Harvard right-fielder, has moved up in the batting order to fifth place. His mark for the season not including last Saturday and games since is .344. Carleton McCullough of Boston University ended the season with .400 while Captain Neil Mahoney of the Huskies closed his college career with .318.

SPAIN CHOSEN TO LEAD EXETER

Frank Spain, former Newton high three sports star athlete, now attending Exeter academy, has been chosen to captain the 1930 baseball team. Spain is a Waban youth and when a Freshman at Newton began an athletic career that bids fair to carry him far. While at Newton high he won nine varsity letters, four in hockey, three in baseball and two in football. Making the hockey team as a freshman he became the outstanding schoolboy player in his last season. At the end of the 1927 football season he was chosen to captain the 1928 eleven after an ankle injury had kept him out of the fihal 1927 games. Prior to the beginning of the 1928 season vis ankle was none too strong and in order to protect himself and save his best efforts for hockey and baseball he resigned from the captaincy of the eleven in a sportsmanlike manner.

In the 1928 state championship baseball team Spain was an important cog in the infield and at bat. His brilliant playing at shortstop, his ability to get on base either by hitting or working the pitcher and his all-round "heady" play brought him commendation from everyone. Consequently he was chosen on all of the all-scholastic everyone. Consequently he was chosen on all of the all-scholastic eams last spring and was awarded the teams last spring and was awarded the mythical captaincy of nearly all.

Last summer he kept up his game by playing shortstop for the Chatham team in the Cape Cod league. At the end of the season he was rated the best shortstop in the circuit in addition to being rated highly in other phases of the sport. Late in September Spain was given a try-out by the St. Louis Cardinals of the National League but the World Series and a change in management followed and he was apparently forgotten.

change in management followed and he was apparently forgotten.

At the beginning of the Winter term in January, Spain entered Exeter academy where he shone as brilliantly in tockey as he did as a high school boy. He was the high scorer of the team and was elected to captain the sextet lext winter.

BOSTON ENGLISH WINS ON ERROR

A muffed fly ball in right field enabled the Boston English high school baseball team, city champions and among the foremost contenders for the state title, to defeat the Newton high school Suburban league championship nine, 4 to 2 last Saturday on the Upper Falls playground. The diamond in that part of the city is easily the best in the city since it was rebuilt by the playground department.

The Newton team was up against nine, 4 to 2 mer rank the mass the mass all elected to capitain the sextet next winter.

This past spring as shortstop on the baseball team he has continued his high grade of play. He ended the season with an average of .315 and on more than one occasion prevented opposing rallies by his fielding. Thus he becomes a two-sport capitain at the New Hampshire school where he is preparing for Dartmouth College.

LETTER AWARDS TO

N. H. S. ATHLETES

The Newton High School athletic committee met on Tuesday to approve awards of varsity, intermediate and junior letters to the various athlettic teams of the spring season as follows:

Varsity baseball—Allen, Wendall, were and black ball for was the third baseman to score wilson from second with Newton's second and final run. Meanwhile Barty and held the opposition to Newton and held the opposition to Newton and held the opposition to second and final run. Meanwhile Bart-lett Nichols was pitching fine ball for Newton and held the opposition to seven bingles. Nichols paved the way for his own defeat by passing the first batter in the sixth and then throwing the next batter's sacrifice bunt over Fletcher's head and allowing the run-ners to perch on second and third Fretcher's head and allowing the runners to perch on second and third with none down. McLean, last batter in the Hub champions list hit a high fly to Billy Annese. Annese, after a long run, got under the ball, but it bounced right out of his glove and both base runners counted with the runs that broke a two to two tie.

English started off in the year first

English started off in the very firs frame. Barry made a sparkling sto and throw to retire McCarthy, lead-of d, and throw to retire McCarthy, lead-off man for English and Wilson tossed out whose tongue wagged throughout the game despite the Newton supporters than he. Crowley hit a grounder to the right of second base on which Barry made a remarkable stop but slipped as he turned to throw and Crowley was credited with a hit. Nichols uncorked a wild pitch and Crowley moved to second where he was in position to score on Tamulis' two-bagger to centerfield which rolled down over the bank. Tamulis was the Boston English pitcher, batting in the "cleanup" position, who not only turned back the Newton batters but inserted a second two-base blow two innings later for the visitors' only earned run. Tamulis was left on second when Nichols threw out O'Neil.

Newton evened the count in the last of the first when 'Bud' Barry connected with a high outside pitch for his home run. It was the second ball that Tamulis pitched. Wilson was thrown out by Tamulis and Andvers filed to right field. Fisterbar keep man for English and Wilson tossed out up at second. Nichols had tossed out McCarthy for the first out and Kenney had poked his second single into centrefield. Crowley singled and Kenney stopped at second. Tamulis hit a Texas leaguer into right which Barry speared with a leaping catch and easily doubled Kenney at second as the latter was half way between third and home. Newton tied it up in the last of the fifth after Barry had swung on a low ball third strike and missed. Wilson laid down a bunt, beat it out and stole second. Andres hit through McCarthy for two bases. Wilson rounded the bag and crashed into McCarthy who went out of his way to block the Newton runner. Umpire Callahan rightly ruled interference and waved Wilson home. Fletcher's fly to left and Nichols rap to first ended the inning.

English scored twice in the sixth as described above and although the orange and black fought valiantly the game was lost. With a two-run lead Tamulis worked better than ever and not a Newtonite reached first base in the last four frames except Nichols who got a life when first baseman Sullivan dropped the ball. Five of the thirteen Newton batters in the last four innings went out by the strikeout route. Nichols was not in any trouble after the damaging sixth as O'Neil was the only man to reach first in the last three innings. O'Neil got his life on a wild throw by Wilson.

THE CURTAIN FALLS

Newton high retained its Suburban league baseball championship for the second year with nine victories in ten games. Somerville high was the only league outfit to turn back the orange and black.

In its other games Newton did not fare so well. They opened the season on a day more suited to football and handed Woburn high the game on a silver platter. They tried to give Medford the game but the latter handed it right back in the tenth inning. Next Newton led Boston College high by a comfortable margin for half the game and then tossed it away. Two weeks later the orange and black had to stage three rallies to wipe out a five run lead in the Malden game which had been built up largely through Newton errors, in order to win the game. On the last Saturday in May the orange and black took their bats over to Waltham has been noted for its weak hitting this season and perhaps the Newton boys thought they did not need hits to win. But they committed sufficient errors to allow Coach Leary's team to score six runs to Newton's five. Then to make the season complete the Newton lads handed Boston English high the game in a manner described elsewhere.

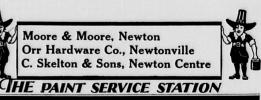

Newton owes the major part of its Suburban League crown to the first five men in its batting order—namely Barry, Wilson, Andres, Fletcher and Nichols, with Reilly starting the team on the right road before reaching his

UNDER THE GILDED DOME

The 1929 Legislature has prorogued and Newton people have every reason to congratulate Speaker Leverett Saltonstall on the success of his first year as presiding officer of the House of Representatives. Mr. Saltonstall had a trying and difficult session, but his handling of the House and the vexatious problems confronting it met commendation from members of both parties. The other members of both parties. The other members of the House, Representatives Baker, Luitwieler and Thompson have been faithful in their attendance, industrious in committee duties and alert to the interests of Newton. The same is equally true of Senator Hollis, who has had no small amount of responsibility imposed upon for a first-year man in the upper branch. The experience he gained in the House made him recognized as a valuable man of the Senate. Evidence of this is found in his appointment to the first joint conference committee on the Boston Elevated bill which was one of the hardest committee assignments of the session.

The final Elevated bill received the votes of Senator Hollis and Representatives Luitwieler and Thompson. Representative Baker had to leave the last day of the session on a buiness trip to Canada and therefore was not recorded.

The province of the session on a buiness trip to Canada and therefore was not recorded.

The prorogation ceremonies coming as they did between 12 and 1 o'clock Sunday morning saw only Speaker Saltonstall and Representative Thompson in the House and Senator Hollis in the upper branch. They "stuck out" until the very end, although they were not among those who rushed to out until the very end, atmough they were not among those who rushed to the State Treasurer's office to avail themselves of the pay due them, including the $500 increase. The Legislature is invariably opened to criticism but the course pursued by the Newton members, was of the usual high order and reflected nothing but credit upon this city.

this city.
One of the most important matter

and reflected nothing but credit upon this city.

One of the most important matters as far as Newton is concerned is the resolve reported by the Committee on Metropolitan Affairs of which Senator Hollis is a member. It provides for an investigation of the advisability and cost of constructing a boulevard or highway in Newton and Weston. It reads as follows:

"Resolved, That the Division of Metropolitan Planning of the Metropolitan Planning of the Metropolitan District Commission and the Department of Public Works are hereby authorized and directed to investigate the advisability and cost of the subject matter of section four of Part II of House document numbered fifty-one of the current year relative to a boulevard or highway in the city of Newton and the town of Weston, extending from Commonwealth avenue near Auburndale park in said city to a point in said town near the intersection of Church street and North avenue, or any substitutive or alternative or additional routes therefor. The division and the department shall report to the general court their findings and recommendations together with drafts of legislation to carry the same into effect, by filing the same with the clerk of the senate not later than December first in the current year. The first bill for the 1930 session has already been filed. It is intended to put teeth in the municipal lighting act of this year's General Court. The Legislature had not been adjourned more than 35 hours before the new measure was presented last Monday in the office of the Clerk of the House of Representatives. What the whole thing means is this; friends of the bill authorizing cities and towns to buy private lighting plants and engage in the lighting business were not satisfied with the act that was signed last Saturday by Governor Allen. It is not the Governor's fault but rather that of the Senate. Certain provisions of the bill caused a difference between the two brances and there had to be a committee on conference. The Senate members of the committee refused to yield on some vital points and rather than not have any legislation whatever the House committee accepted what they could get and then both branches put the bill through and it received the Governor's approval. The friends of the original bill wanted it drawn so that a city or town might buy a part of a lighting plant. The House was willing the bill should so read but the Senate was not. The whole thing will be fought out again at next year's session.

Senator Hollis was on Wednesday appointed, by Pres. Bacon of the Senate, chairman of the special recess committee created to investigate the abolition of grade crossings in Massachusetts.

Representative Thompson has been appointed by Speaker Saltonstall a member of the special recess committee to investigate the duties and compensation of certain officials, judges and employes of the several counties and of the commonwealth, the decline in the purchasing power of money and the basis of salaries paid in private employment.

OPPOSE FILLING STATION

Mrs. Delia Flemming of Channing street, Newton, owner of property at the corner of Hovey and Waban streets appeared before the Licenses Committee on Wednesday night to protest against a permit being granted for a gasoline filling station at 27 Hovey street. She contended that the value of her property will depreciate because of odors from the gasoline station and that traffic conditions on this street are very bad. Letters of protest were received from Roy Morgan and Mrs. John Bryson, residents of Hovey street.

ABOUT TOWN

By Edw. H. Powers

We have been asked to comment on the huse trucks which rumble noisily along the streets in various states of decrepitude. Some of these rattle so that they appear to be falling apart. Others are practically running on the wheel rims, so worn are the solid tires. These cause vibrations that shake buildings as they pass. Others struggle up grades with cut-outs open. Sooner or later, and the sooner the better trucks will be regularly inspected so that the nerve wracking types will be kept off the streets.

Several persons have criticised the surface laid in front of the new fire-station at Newton Corner. They believe it should be of concrete rather than of crushed stone bound with tar. They ask why no sidewalk has been provided for the many pedestrians who must cross in front of the fire-station going to and coming from the railroad station? railroad station?

Another complaint received is about the inadequate service given by the Boston Elevated to people who must travel on the cars between N wton Corner and Boston.

Newton residents who travel by rail, and they number into thousands, should take advantage of the facilities which are afforded them to obtain tickets and reservations here in their own city. Whether one is going only to New York City, or taking a tour to the Pacific Coast, or journeying to any part of this continent reservations and tickets can be obtained at the Newtonville station of the Boston & Albany Railroad from Agent Fred H. Hughes or his assistants. Why bother going to Boston to arrange for such trips when one can get the same service.

This picture shows the Newton Savings Bank about 1863. It was located in the center of Richardson Park, Newton Corner. The present building is in exactly the same location, but covers the entire area of what was then the Park.

TOUNDED by the Newton Temperance Society and Lyceum when Newton was a village of about 2,000 inhabitants, the Newton Savings Bank has always been an important factor in the growth of our city. Carefully managed by well-known Newton business men, the Bank has made a consistent and healthy growth through the nearly 100 years of its existence. Never in better condition than today, with deposits of $12,-375,000, and a surplus for the protection of depositors of $1,-272,000, it amply justifies the use of its well-known slogan

GILLIGAN HERO OF HARVARD WIN

Tommy Gilligan, and Howard Whitmore, former Newton high school athletes, were the headliners in the 9 to 7 victory of the Harvard nine over the Quantico Marines. Gilligan did the hitting and Whitmore the pitching which turned back the visitors to Soldiers Field in a game won by the Crimson after an uphill battle.

deers Field in a game won by the Crimson after an uphill battle.

Harvard tallied once in the first to take the lead but in the third the Marines staged a three-run rally, materially aided by some smart base-running. Harvard came right back with a four-run surge to again forge in front. In the fourth another three-run rally by the visitors put them one run in front and another run in the next frame doubled the lead. In the last of the fifth after Ticknor had walked Gilligan slammed one over the fielders' heads for a home run—the longest hit on Soldiers Field this season—and the score was again tied up.

The Crimson scored the run it needed to win in the sixth on a walk, fielder's choice and a single. Gilligan gave Whitmore another run lead in the seventh with a two bagger to score a base-runner.

seventh with a two bagger to score a base-runner.

For the day Gilligan had three hits —a homer, double and single, in four times up, scored one run, drove in four runs and contributed a pretty catch in right field on Levy's hit. In the first inning he drove in the first Crimson counter after the first batter had walked and reached second on an error. His homer accounted for two and his double in the seventh for the final run.

Miss Kathryn Elizabeth Reynolds, daughter of Mrs. Catherine M. Reynolds of & St. James street, Newton, was married to Herbert John Nolan of 179 Boston street, Dorchester, on Saturday morning, June eighth, at the Church of Our Lady, Newton, at nine o'clock. Rev. Robert M. Mantle performed the ceremony.

A BIT O' CAPE COD IN NEWTON

Do you love the quaint white cottages one sees scattered throughout the Cape. Have you sometimes wished you could put one in your pocket and bring it up here close to Boston? We have too—but not being able to do this we have done the next best thing, found one in this delightful town that is so close to the originals that you can almost feel the Cape atmosphere. And the best of all the price is low. We would like to have you see it.

Farmers Worked Up Over Spanish "Lions"

A wag's remark to farm tenants near Dover, N. C., during the Spanish-American war caused much apprehen-sion for several days to the simple folk of the countryside. He told them the American naval and military forces were superior but Spain had "more lions." He even went so far as to say 500 of the beasts had been landed at Beaufort, not far away, the Taking up the joke, villagers rigged up a "horse fiddle," or resined box across which could be drawn a piece wood as a bow, emitting sounds similar to the roaring of lions. This was secreted in the neighborhood and "played" throughout the night. The tenants were terrified and among some of them the belief in the lions re mained alive for a long time. were the rule in the district .- Detroi

London's Wall Street

Lombard street, the principal bank quarter of London, takes its name from the Lombards, Italian goldsmiths and money lenders who settled there in the Twelfth century. At that time they were commonly called "long-beards" and the thoroughfare was called Longbord and Longebred. A century later it was called Lange bourne—meaning "long brook"—and this title is still maintained for the place where it was situated.

"blue coal"

Let the color be your guide

It's the genuine D. L. & W. Anthracite . . . . clean, hard, long-burning coal that has given satisfaction for more than half a century.

It's simply been colored "blue" with a harmless, vegetable dye. The color doesn't affect the burning qualities, one way or another . . we couldn't improve the quality of "blue coal" if we tried.

But the "blue" color serves as a distinctive trademark that identifies this high-quality coal all along the line . . . from the colliery to the cellar.

To those who are unable to visit interesting countries, the next best thing is to be able to listen to one who has had this opportunity. Such was the privilege of the Woman's Association of the Newtonville Methodist Episcopal Church at its annual meting, Thursday, June 6. The speaker was Mrs. Genevieve T. Jones, a member of the Association, who spoke on her recent visit to Palestine. Post cards and snap shots added interest to the splendid descriptions which only a keen observer and an unusual Bible student could have given.

Mrs. Jones' party landed first at Haifa where it was met by autos and taken to Mt. Carmel, which commands a wonderful view of the Meditterranean Sea and rich cultivated valleys. From Haifa the route ran along the sea, sometimes through mulberry groves, to Beirut where the American University was visited. The University buildings are fine and the grounds are well laid out with trees, shrubs, and flowers.

Driving through the valley of Baca the tourists reached Damascus cold and hungry but were refreshed by palatable food and a good night's rest. Here they visited the Great Mosque being required to wear large slippers over their shoes to avoid profaning the place. The street that is called Straight and the house of Ananias were points of interest in Damascus. In Capernaeum a fine old monastery, surrounded by a beautiful flower garden and palm trees, was another interesting sight.

The boys responsible for maliciously damaging the large tent used in connection with the Chestnut Hill horse show on Memorial Day were discovered by Patrolman Maloney of the Newton police. Fifteen boys residing near that district were implicated and six of them admitted their guilt. The committee in charge of the show agreed not to prosecute the boys upon the promise that each of the culprits would pay $1 towards making restitution for the damages done to the tent.

Motorcycle officers of the Newton police department had eight "speeders" in the Newton court on Friday. One of those caught driving faster than is consistent with safety of the public, Lewis Parker of Charles River Village, was fined $25; each of the following seven was fined $10—John Murphy, 12 Cottage street. AN INVITATION TO THE PUBLIC

Beginning Sunday evening and continuing for fourteen consecutive Sunday evenings there are to be carillon concerts in the Memorial Building and Tower at Norwood to which the public is cordially invited. The building and tower are a memorial to Norwood men who fell in all wars for the United States and the Tilton Carillon, a $50,000 gift, was made by a public spirited Norwood citzen.

The building, tower, and bells will be open for public inspection on the Fourteen Sundays including June 16 to September 15 between six and seven o'clock. The concerts will be from eight to nine o'clock. There is no charge for admission or parking, no collection, or no advertising or stunt features. There is also plenty of parking space and liberal parking rules.

Infants' Hosiery is another item added to the values shown at the Retail Store of Thomas Daiby Company in the Chase Building on Pleasant St. All the wanted qualities from Mercerized to Silk and Wool and all Wool stockings for Infants can be bought at substantial savings.—Advertisement.

Chicago in 1673

The site of Chicago was first visited by Marquette and Joliet, French missionaries and explorers, in 1673. Permanent settlement was retarded by Indian hostilities. Because of the ideal location on the Lakes, however, it soon became a great trading center, and gradually grew into the great city it is to-day.

Dog Needs "Balanced"

Most dogs are just as dependent upon simple, wholesome, nourishing fare as people are. If they are fed a lot of greasy stuff, or quantities of candy, they will get sick. On the other candy, they will get sick. On the other hand, practically every one will thrive on plenty of lean ment, either raw or slightly cooked; fresh fish, a fair amount of cereal, some thoroughly boiled green vegetables. Supplement this diet with a few pieces of crumbled stale white bread; and two or three times a week give the dog a good-sized fresh heef bone from the butcher. Never let him have poultry bottcher. Never let him have poultry bones, though, or any other kind that breaks into sharp slivers.

And here is another point; mix the different kinds of food very thoroughly. This will prevent the picking out of particularly choice tidbits and the leaving of the rest. One great value of the foods recommended is that they constitute a sanely balanced diet, so ur dog ought to eat all of them .-Exchange.

Sam Pepys Satisfied With "Plum-Porridge"

The Christmas plum pudding is an English national dish of comparatively recent date, for old Samuel Pepys, noted diarist and gournet of the Seventeenth century, knew it not. Inspection of his memorable record reveals that the year before the great fire in 1625, he wrote:

fire, in 1665, he wrote: "Dined by my wife's bedside with great content, having a mess of brave plum-porridge and a roasted pullett."

However, the "plum-porridge" must have been the forerunner of the modern plum pudding. It was made of strong beef broth, in which were stewed currants, raisins and dates. which were charged with bread crumbs, highly spiced and fortified

Abuses of Optimism

Our sunshine thought for today is that the pessimist has his place in the world as well as the optimist. Undoubtedly optimism is good for such dread maladies as the blues, the wil-lies, the jumps, the doldrums, the dumps and the down-in-the-mouth dis ease.

Still there is such a thing as too much sun-kissed optimism. The world has a place here and there for the regular pigheaded, rangtankerous, unreasonable, narrow-eyed, file-biting pessimist. Too many people believe that Santa Claus runs the stock mar-ket or that if they see the moon over their right shoulder they have only to make a wish and sure enough it will come true just like the pigeon that flies out of the magician's hat when he waves his wand.

Fancy Buttons for Men

Buttons played no small part in the adornment of our grandfathers, who paid high prices for their coat decora-

For instance, a man named Bisset has left on record the fact that the buttons on his wedding coat cost $100. and were of his own painting. He did a good deal of fancy painting for Mata good deal of fancy painting for Matthew Boulton. "The elegant paintings
I did for him," he mentions, "were on glass, about the size of a half-crown piece, with pearl devices in the center on different colored foils. They were set in steel for court buttons,
the size when finished of a Spanish dollar. I generally had a guinea per button."—Montreal Family Herald.

Old American Cities

Historical records of the United States and of the various states seem to indicate that the oldest cities in the United States are St. Augustine. Fla.; Santa Fe, N. M.; Jamestown, Va., and Plymouth, Mass. St. Augustine is generally believed to be the oldest city in the United States. It was settled by the Spaniards in 1565. Santa Fe was founded by the Spaniards in 1605. Jamestown, Va., was the first permanent English settlement in the permanent English settlement in the United States. The English colonists landed there on May 13, 1607. Ply-mouth is the oldest New England town. It was reached by the Pilgrim Fathers on December 21, 1620.

Recipe for a Perfect Day

A day is just as perfect as you want to make it. Helen Christine Bennett gives a perfect day decalogue in an article for the Physical Culture Mag

She writes: "1. I wake up. Stretch 2. Get a cheerful frame of mind. 3 Drink a glass of cool water. 4. Take ten minutes setting-up exercises. 5. Take a shower—warm, then cool. 6. Don't eat too much breakfast. 7. Refuse to rush. 8. Walk part way to work. 9. Don't worry while in your other. 10. Rest. before your dinner and don't work evenings."

erai appeal in the document itself. Now I'm glad I took a copy home to read.

Under "receipts" I found that Newton's county tax for 1928 was $163,697.85. Cambridge, with $234,851.37 and Lowell with $184,730.95, were the only higher ones in the list. Newton, therefore, should have some concern over its county government and anything that may be printed in this column seems to me pertinent.

Pages are given to detailed expenditures in connection with civil court and criminal court costs. Among other things under this caption is the name of every juror who sat in 1928 and the amount paid him for service. The cost of maintaining the district court's total for last year was $21,926.77. These are few of the items which tell the voters of Middlesex county where the money goes. I doubt if one could ask for a more complete statement of finances, not only regarding the courts but various other county expenses.

The report deals with what the county government did for the roads in various sections. In Newton "no action was taken on road matters the past year." Not knowing precisely what this means I am willing to assume that it can be explained easily enough, but somehow it doesn't square with the fact that Newton paid the third largest county tax of any city or town in the county.

As to agriculture and its progress

The night quiet of Newton as contrasted with the racket of other cities apparently is a thing of the past. At least there are parts of the Garden City where it is difficult for people to get a night's rest through no fault of their own. If anybody eats something not readily digested or worscience disturb his slumbers that person is not entitled to any great amount of sympathy. But when circumstances over which he has no control make the night hideous then he is deserving of commiseration.

Of course this nocturnal disturbance is only in its infancy. By that I mean only sections of the city are at present afflicted. You can still find much quiet and peace in those villages where there is nothing in the way of bus transportation after a certain hour. This idea of night noises may not appeal to people and yet it is coming as certain as anything can be. Those who live in the vicinity of a main thoroughfare are in for it unless I am very much in error.

Here is what the new "stop" signs at corners of thoroughfares entering Washington street have started. The jamming-on of automobile brakes at all hours of the day and night. Think that over! We have seen those wird The carried on short and the control of the carried of the carried

I suppose the automobile is responsible for the development of the Summer camp idea. Many people find it a most enjoyable form of vacation this traveling about and stopping where night overtakes. The fact that it is popular is proved by the number of camps and camp-sites available. Newton and places adjacent to large cities do not require such things as much as the mountain and seashore resorts where vacationists find themselves headed in the Summer.

It isn't surprising that because of the increasing number of camps that regulations should be made. School and college camps have been so long established that they have their own health rules. Furthermore, they are of such a character as to demand the best of facilities in every respect since they are based on the general desire for physical improvement.

But now we have the State of Massachusetts, through its Department of Public Health, going as far as to recommend health standards for Summer camps, with special preference to sanitation, medical supervision and nutrition. These recommendations have been approved by the Massachusetts. Association of Boards and Health and

The Dictator Eight

Straight eight motor; 115-inch wheelbase; Hydraulic shock absorbers; Steel-core safety steering wheel; Non-shatterable windshield; Adjustable steering column and front seats; genuine mohair upholstery; Amplified - action 4-wheel brakes; Double - drop frame

STUDEBAKER'S New Dictator Eight is precisely what you would expect of the Builder of Champions. A worthy companion car to the World Champion President and the famous Commander. Champion quality at a low One-Profit price-possible only because Studebaker builds more eights than any other maker in the world.

In economy of fuel and oil this new eight rivals the thriftiest sixes. Performance is more satisfying than any other car at its price has ever provided.

This New Dictator Eight was developed on Studebaker's Million-Dollar Proving Ground, by the same engineers whose genius endowed Studebaker cars with the ability to win and hold every official stock car speed and endurance record.

You who have always wanted astraight eight may now enjoy the silken smoothness of Studebaker straight eight power, its unhesitating traffic mastery, its flexibility and pick-up. The economy of operation upon which you have insisted will be yours, along with low initial cost.

Come in and see The New Dictator Straight Eight-drive it-today!

greatest motor car ever built in the $900 field.

the outstanding costly-car attractions this car offers.

Its performance proves it. Drive it and experience the great flow of smooth power from its big, high-compression, 7-bearing motor, the lightning-like get-away, the world's easiest steering.

Its size proves it. Big, comfortable, and 5 passengers. Finished with the lux- ered, fully equipped prices.

TASH engineers have created the ury and tastefulness usually exclusive to expensive cars.

Its beauty proves it. For the "400" body Its features prove it. Just examine all design is the style leader—beautiful beyond comparison in its field.

> Its equipment proves it. There's no extra charge for front and rear bumpers, Lovejoy hydraulic shock absorbers outboard mounted, spare tire lock and tire cover.

And its value proves it. Just compare the delivered, fully equipped prices of with extra head and leg room for all other cars with the low Nash deliv-

KIWANIS CLUB

The speaker at the Tuesday meeting of the Kiwanis Club at Norumbega Park was former Alderman George M. Heathcote who talked on the welfare work in which he is engaged at the Hood Rubber Company's big plant at Watertown. Mr. Heathcote told of the measures taken by the company to protect its employees from loan sharks and to aid them in times of adversity. He stressed the fact that today big industrial corporations realize that it is more important to care for the human element than for machines. The assistance rendered to employees rebounds beneficially to employees are vital to the success of any business enterprise.

Archibald Bellinger as chairman of the special committee in charge of the affair told of an entertainment which Newton Kiwanis will provide Saturday afternoon, June 22nd for the crippled children at New England Peabody Home, Oak Hill. The boys of the DeMolay Band have volunteered their services and will give a concert at the grounds of the home. Persons not acquainted with the great work being done by this institution, and friends of the home are invited to attend.

MARINE AVIATORS THRILL NEWTON

As an added attraction to the ball games played this week between the nine of the Quantico Marines and college teams in this region three stunt flyers of the Marine Corps "did their stuff." These aviators, Captain Moore, Lieut. Hughes and Lieut. Price surely can fly. Monday afternoon the Marines played Boston College at Chestnut Hill and residents of that district, Newton Centre and Newton Corner were treated to some of the most daring flying stunts ever seen in this city. The Marine officers looped, did Immelman turns, flew upside down, imitated falling leaves, performed barrel rolls, nose-dived thousands of feet and pulled off about all the daredevil feats in the repertory of an air circus. Some nervous persons became alarmed when they saw the planes swooping down and had visions of house roofs being caved in, but nothing of the sort happened.

APPOINTED EXAMINERS

As a result of the Red Cross campaign for examiners in Life Saving held at the Y. M. C. A. in April the following were appointed examiners or renewed their former appointments: Louise Lovejoy, Gladys L. Brown, Elizabeth B. Lane, Priscilla Ordway, Margaret Bascom, Elsa Brandt, Clarence D. Ash, Henry K. Michel, Howard Chapin, Albert D. Hoffman, Charles Peterson, Richard T. Wales, Lawrence A. Brophy and Thomas Sliney. Of these Miss Brown is to teach at Camp Avalon, Chathamport, Mass.; Miss Brandt at Camp Mary Day, Wellesley; Miss Bascom at the Katherine Ridgeway Camp for Girls at North Whitefield, Me.; Miss Lane will help at Camp Four Winds, Bournsdale, Mass. Mr. Hoffman will instruct at the Y. M. C. A.; Mr. Brophy will continue his work in connection with canoe racing; and Mr. Chapin will instruct in Waltham. As a result of the Red Cross cam

VACATION CHURCH SCHOOL

TO NEWTONVILLE PARENTS— Try this recipe: "Take 100 children, more or less. Mix well in a cool church on a hot summer day. Add dren, more or less. Mix well in a cool church on a hot summer day. Add the Daily Vacation Church School program of Bible stories, supervised play, character lessons, hymns, songs, and patriotic exercises. Sweeten according to taste with practical handwork, dramatization and other expressional activities. Stir in some picnics, athletic sports and a generous portion of good times. The results are guaranteed to satisfy any forward looking church."

Enroll your child in the Daily Vacation Church School held under the auspices of the Newtonville Council of Religious Education in the Methodist Episcopal Church, July 8 to August 2, from 9:00 to 11:45, for all children between the ages of 6 and -14.

The Newtonville Council of Religious Education.

NORUMBEGA DISTRICT S. S. ASSOCIATION

The Norumbega District School of Religious Education announces at this time an entirely new policy that might be called 'taking the school to the people." Next year there will be five centers for the training school work;—local groups in Newton Centre, Belmont, Watertown, and Waltham will co-operate with the District, so that schools will be held in all these places as well as at Newtonville.

these places as well as at Newtonville.

In the first term, Monday evenings, Newtonville, and Newton Centre will have an exchange of leaders; those teaching in the first period at Newtonville will go for the second period at Newton Centre, and vice versa.
The Assembly period of twenty minutes between classes will make possible this transfer of leaders. In the first term Tuesday evenings, a similar plan will be carried out for Watertown and Belmont.

In the second term, Tuesday evenings, Newtonville and Waltham will effect an exchange of leaders. The change from Monday to Tuesday evenings is made necessary because of the special desire to secure Prof.
Warminghamator this second term, and he can not come to us for Mondays in 1930.

CARD OF THANKS

Charles Ward Post 62, G. A. R., takes this method of expressing its thanks to its many friends; to those who so kindly gave the use of their autos for the parade; to the Middlesex and Boston Street Rallway for the buses so generously provided, the Woman's Association of the Central Congregational Church for the bountiful lunch at noon, and to all who in any way contributed to the success of the day.

WILFRED A. WETHERBEE, Adjutant.

Original Necktie Was More Than Ornament

The necktles men war today were evolved from lace thingumabobs that were worn, back in the days when men's imagination let them in for rainbow hued silk and velvet clothes, to keep the neckband of the shirt together.

What men wore in those days in leu of a tie was called a jabot or kerchief. It was not all lace, for it was a sneeze catcher as well.
After the neckerchief had done double duty in the names of decoration a.d utility, a few of the more sensitive of the young bloods whose hay fever was particularly had rehay fever was particularly bad re-volted. They began carrying these ker-chocker-chiefs in their hands. The custom became popular and in no time at all the cambric and lace what's it pecame a hand kerchief.

When the hand kerchief was finally ransferred permanently from the hand to the pocket, the tie around the neck, with a single mission—to bind lecoratively—had become a fixed mode, too. Starting life us a cravat, and a broad one, it has thinned down to a alim four-in-hand and sometimes it expresses itself in a bow.—Irene Kuhn in Liberty Magazine

Reware of Grudges

We haven't a very good opinion of men who try to take grudges beyond the grave, or who strike at the living from the safety of the grave. But such efforts sometimes make inter-esting stories. A Philadelphian, for instance, branded his wife. In his will, instance, branded fis wife, in his will, as an "ungrateful and untruthful woman" and bequeathed he, $1 with which to buy a rope to hang herself. That may have been the only way in which he could get "the last word" with her. But the fact that he also criticized his son, in the same will, and cut him off with $100 "so that he may have a deep grave dug for himself" indicates that the dead man was either of an unusuly mean nature either of an unusually mean nature or was unbalanced mentally. It is bad taste to speak ill of the dead. But the dead sometimes speak very ill of themselves in their wills.—New Oreans Tribune.

Jane had been unusually naughty ne day and her mother found it nec ssary to scold her before putting her bed. After she had put out the ights and left the room she heard inne saying her prayer, and as she lisened she heard her say:

"Dear Jesus, if you make me naughty tomorrow as you did today, I'm never going to ask you to make me good seain "—Indiananol's News

Social Welfare Little Jerry Cameron had heard the family discussing social welfare, so she decided to help along the good work. One day she came home from school and explained to her mother that she had called on forty poor peoring such an attendance of only poor people that afternoon.

"Do you mean to say you saw forty people in one afternoon?"

"I didn't see all of them, mother.

July 5th to August 3rd

Despite the extreme heat of last Tuesday evening 20 of the 21 members of the Newton Board of Aldermen were present. The lone absentee, Alderman Harte, was out of the State on a business trip. The first matters on the docket were hearings on the petitions of the Telephone Company for pole locations on Eden avenue, West Newton and Morton street, Newton Centre. A representative of Alderman Gallagher called attention nue, West Newton and Morton street, Newton Centre. A representative of the company explained that the poles in question were located when these two streets were private ways and the permits sought are just to legalize the locations.

permits sought are just to legalize the locations.

Albert T. Stuart of Newton Centre, petitioner for a permit to establish a gasoline filling station at 232 Washington street, Lower Falls explained that this property has a frontage of 125 feet, run back to the Charles River and has an area of 22,000 square feet. The proposed station site will extend 110 feet along Washington street and have a depth of 75 feet. The balance of the lot will be used as part of the flower garden of Mr. Thomas F. Donohue, the peony and iris expert. The station, Mr. Stuart stated, will be occupied by one of the larger oil companies. Mr. Donohue favored the granting of the petition. No person appeared to object. There was also no opposition to the petition of the Woodland Golf Club for a permit to install a 1000 gallon tank for gasoline and a pump at the rear of 316 Grove street, Lower Falls, to be used privately.

pump at the rear of 316 Grove street, Lower Falls, to be used privately.

No opposition developed to the petitions for relocating and widening Washington street near the Charles River at Lower Falls, taking land owned by Gasbarri at the shore of Crystal Lake for a municipal bathing beach and the construction of a sewer in Exeter street, West Newton.

E. W. Corcoran representing James FitzPatrick asked that action on placing a sewer and drain in private land near Chestnut Hill road be delayed. John Reardon of 34 Beacon street opposed the building of a sewer in this land.

Alderman Gallagher criticised the great number of traffic and parking signs along Newton's streets. He particularly criticised the signs along Washington street which have been so placed since that highway has been made a through street and he suggested that the Traffic Committee cease passing ordinances which will clutter the streets with signs. Alderman Powers of the Traffic Committee informed his colleagues from Ward 1 that this committee has functioned very little the past year and a half and that many of the signs have been placd at the direction of traffic officials of the Department of Public Works of Massachusetts. He defended the making of Washington street into a "through street" and stated that while

Burke Reappointed Chief of Police

one Alderman In Twenty Casts Dissenting Vote

Chief Bernard F. Burke of the Newton Police Department was again reappointed for another year by the Board of Aldermen at the meeting on Tuesday night. According to the law providing for the tenure of the position of Chief of Police in Newton the 'occupant holds it mandatorily until he reaches the age of 65. Then he has the right to request the Board of Aldermen, subject to the approval of the Mayor, for successive yearly re-appointments to the office until he reaches the age of 70 when he must retire. Chief Burke reached the age of 65 in June, 1926 and was re-appointed that year without opposition. In 1927 and last year there was strenuous opposition in the Board of Aldermen to his request for re-appointment but his opponents could only muster a small minority against him. Of the 20 members of the Board present Tuesday night, only one balloted against the re-appointment of the Chief. In striking contrast to the past two years there were no arguments offered in favor or in opposition to the re-appointment.

After the result had been announced Alderman Powers moved for re-consideration, hoping that the motion would not prevail. He stated that his reason for so doing was to avoid a repetition of an extra meeting being called within the next few days because of some member of the Aldermen making a motion to reconsider within 24 hours as was done before. The Ward 1 alderman called attention to the extreme heat of the weather and expressed a dislike to be compelled to spend another evening this week at City Hall. Following Alderman Powers' motion, Alderman Gallagher of Ward 1 took the floor to explain that he had not cast the one vote against Chief Burke. Mr. Gallagher commented that because of his opposition to the Chief's re-appointment the last two years he probably would be regarded as being responsible for the lone vote, but he was not the "culpitt." "If the Mayor wants Chief Burke another year, I can stand for him," remarked the Ward 1 member. Chief Bernard F. Burke of the New "through street" situation.

Alderman Gallagher called attention to the excellent records made by the athletic teams of Newton High School the past year and aserted that some token of recognition should be given to the boys for the good work they have done. He moved that a vote of confidence and appreciation be given them for the zeal and ability they have displayed. The motion was carried.

The appoinment of Maynard Hutchinson as a member of the Planning Board was confirmed. On the recommendation of the Licenses Committee common victualler licenses were granted to F. Gasbarri at 34 Jackson street and to Mrs. Sarah Murphy at 155 Oak street; an auctioneer's license was granted to Angelo Annicelli of 192 Adams street.

Considine Named Assistant Coach

To Help Coach Sullivan With High School Eleven

Charles Consodine, former Newto star, has been appointed to a position on the faculty of the Newton high school. He will teach history or social science and also become line coach and assistant to Coach John L. Sullivan of the football team. He has resigned a position as teacher and head coach of the Plymouth high school athletic teams to come to Newton.

Consodine is a Newton high school graduate where he starred in three sports under the tutelage of the late coach, Allie Dickinson. He played on the football, track and baseball teams prior to his graduation in 1924 when he was the only three-letter man of his class. He was fullback on the eleven, centrefield on the baseball team and was a hurdler on the track team.

It wasn't until he went to Brown that he became a linesman. Both Robinson and McLaughry, the Brown coaches, saw the possibilities in his speed and endurance as a centre in the new game of football and under their schooling he became the pivot on the greatest team in modern football, the Brown "fron man" eleven of 1927, the team that played game after game without a substitution.

As a baseball player he was con-after game without a substitution.

As a baseball player he was considered a better prospect than at football when entering college and he was also a high hurdler of promise but forsake both of these sports in favor of football and studies. He was an honor student at Brown where he majored in history and graduated in 1928 among the highest of his class.

McLaughrey, the Brown coach, said

McLaughrey, the Brown coach, said of him, "He's the very best team man I ever can recall handling. He made more sacrifices and got the least credit of all the boys of that great Brown team. He was tireless and ever alert. Most of our plays centred around him and be never was found wanting. I and he never was found wanting. I am certain that he will make the grade in extra fashion no matter what he in extra fashion no matter what he undertakes."

He has apparently shown some justification of his coaches remarks through is work at Plymouth the past year. Last fall he turned out the best football team that school ever had, it played 11 games without a single reverse and defeated its ancient rivals, Abington and Whitman high schools for the first time in years. Those who viewed the play of the school eleven stamped it as the finest drilled team in late football methods. In baseball also, but with mediocre material, the Plymouth nine has made quite a reputation this past spring.

As has been noted Consodine will assist Coach Sullivan next fall with the football team where he will have charge of the linesmen and with the loss of much material because of the new three-year ruling it is already considerable of a problem as to just what he will have to start off with as a nucleus. Carson Stanwood, former Purdue centre, who has been the Newton line coach for the past several years has accepted a position as line coach of the Bowdoin varsity eleven and thus it came about that the path was open for Consodine.

Next spring while no change is contemplated in the present direction of

was open for Consodine.

Next spring while no change is contemplated in the present direction of the baseball team with head coach Sullivan and his assistant Jeff Jones, slated to handle the reins of the varsity it is possible that because of his experience that Consodine may handle one of the other teams.

He was the Traveler's all-scholastic second baseman last year "but Coach Sullivan needed a first sacker so Allie moved over. He fielded the new base well, hit .454, being the team's best batter and stood out as the best initial sacker in this section." Wilson was chosen as the utility may sound harsh but Wilson was the second leading batter on his team, clipping the apple for well over .400 and scoring twenty runs. He has a strong arm and is a smooth enough fielder to step in with either McDonough, Crowley or Marshall and hold his own." (McDonough of Woburn, Crowley of Boston English and Marshall of Dorchester are all shortstops who were chosen for short, third and second, respectively by the Traveler's sports writer who regarded them as too good to be left off the team and consequently placed them in the above positions). The Traveler gives honorable mention to Nichols, Andres, Barry and Annese of the Newton team among players from other schools.

Sunday the Herald announced its all-scholastic team of just nine players

Sunday the Herald announced its all-scholastic team of just nine players and no relief pitchers or utility men and limits its choice to Greater Boston public high schools. Fletcher is the only Newton lad chosen on this team. Speaking of Fletcher the Herald says, "Fletcher stands above the first basemen. He's the Newton captain and heavy hitter. He's not the best infielder in the world but he's there in the pinch. He's courageous and steady. He made the Newton team a champion." Wilson, Andres and Barry are spoken of by the Herteam a champion." Wilson, Andree and Barry are spoken of by the Her ald writer in selecting his team.

and Barry are spoken of by the Herald writer in selecting his team.

In keeping with its usual custom the Globe, which came out with its teams on Monday, chose a first and a second team from the public high school ranks of Eastern Massachusetts. The captaincy of the Globe nine is given to Allie Fletcher of Newton who won the Dickinson Memorial cup. "It was through his qualities of leadership that Newton annexed its second consecutive championship in the Suburban league." . . . "It was not at all hard to select the outstanding first baseman of the year because Captain Alexander Fletcher of Newton high, who will enter Yale University next fall, proved conclusively that he was the peer of the field in the first sackers' rank. He could and has played every other position in the infield and moved to first to strengthen the nine where it was weak. He led the Newton high nine in batting with an average of .462." Writing of Wilson the Globe's writer says, "there was a scarcity of high-grade third basemen this spring but the three outstanding ones for that position were Wilson of Newton, Woodlock of Brookline and Davidson of Dorchester. Wilson, the first choice, is a fine ground coverer, possesses a wonderful throwing arm and was a consistent hitter throughout the season." Phil Andres was placed in centrefield on the second team because like those chosen for the first team he could cover ground, has a first class arm and is a first class hitter.

team he could cover ground, has a first class arm and is a first class hitter.

The Post also anounced its all-scholastic teams on Monday and in keeping with its custom chose three teams, the first of which is made up of players whom the Post's sports writer saw in action while some of those on the second and third teams are picked for their records, especially the pitchers. Arthur Wilson was the choice for third base on the first team. Fletcher the choice for utility first baseman on the first team. Bill Reilly was named with Weafer of Woburn as a pitcher on the second team and Charles Barry and Phil Andres were placed at second and in the outfield on the third team. Wilson was given the edge at third base because of his batting. "He is a fine boy on ground balls and his peg across the diamond is worth watching. John Desmond of the Boston high school of Commerce team was given the first base position over Fletcher because of his fielding and the fact that he is considered a consistent batter." Fletcher played first a lot of games and is best in the Suburban circuit. His sticking is something to brag about and as he is one of the best ball players of the year he has to land a place as utility. The Post says of Reilly—'he did his part well in helping Newton land the title in its circuit." The annual game between the Post all-scholastic team of the present year and the preceding year will be held Saturday afternoon at Tufts Oval for the benefit of the Post Santa Claus fund. This will be the eighth annual game of the series which was first instituted in 1922. With Arthur Wilson and Fletcher on this year's outfit and Frank Spain, stortstop and captain of the 1928 nine the orange and black will be pretty well represented.

Darkness Saves All-Suburbans

Wednesday evening the game at Dilboy field, Somerville, between the All-Boston and All-Greater Boston scholastic teams chosen by the Post was halted by darkness with the score 7 to 7. The game was called after ene man had been retired in the last of the sixth, inasmuch as the All-Boston outfit had scored four runs in the first of the sixth and was leading 11 to 7 the darkness saved the bacon for the All-Greater Boston team as the score reverted to the end of the fifth when it was knotted at 7 all. The game will probably be replayed at the same field next Tuesday night. Fletcher, Wilson and Rellly were the three local youths taking part in the game. Fletcher was on first, getting one hit in three times up while Wilson, who was up three times failed to hit safely. Wilson and Fletcher engineered one double play for their team and Reilly, while on the mound, fanned two and passed two.

Gilligan Gets Three Out of Five
It took Harvard ten innings to turn back Tufts last Saturday at Tufts Oval in the annual game between the two college rivals. Tommy Gilligan collected three hits in five times at bat, all of which figured in the Crimson scoring. Tufts scored four runs in the first to drive McHale, Harvard twirler, from the box. Harvard scored its first tally in the third inning when Gilligan singled to bring home Capt. McGrath. In the fifth Harvard scored seven tallies. McGrath and Gilligan started it off with a single apiece. In the eighth Harvard went into the lead again when Gilligan singled, stole second, and came home on Prior's single.

School.

Competition in most of the events was exceptionally keen and the outstanding feature of the meet was the broad jumping of Whitney of the Day School with a leap of 16 feet, 11 inches in the seventh grade class. This jump was better than any of the contestants in the eighth and ninth grade classes could do.

About seventy five hove were eli-

About seventy five boys were entered in the fifteen events on the program which made it a pretty busy afternoon for the officials. O'Nell of Day School was the only double winner of the day with his first places in the 100-yard dash and standing broad jump in the ninth grade class.

The relay races provided the best competition with the Day School winning the seventh grade 240-yard relay and the ninth grade 400-yard relay and Bigelow taking the 300-yard eighth grade event.

Andres Back in Field

Harold Andres, who played a substitute catcher's role for the first part of the Dartmouth varsity baseball season and then won a place in the outfield until the regular catcher, Bart McDonough of Woburn injured his finger, necessitating the call for Andres to don the mitt and mask, ended the season in the outfield again. In inger, necessitating the call for Andres to don the mitt and mask, ended the season in the outfield again. In Saturday's game with Pennsylvania, which the Green lost in the 13th inning to enable the Pennsylvanians to take the lead in the informal collegiate league standing, the former Newton high star athlete patrolled left field. In the closing game of the season on Monday in which Dartmouth defeated Cornell, 1 to 0, to tie Pennyslvania for the league leadership, Andres also played left. After the game McDonough was elected to the captaincy of the 1930 team so it would seem that Andres would probably patrol the outfield another season. The Newtonville youth is winding up his sophomore year with an excellent athlectic record. As a freshman he won numerals in football, hockey and baseball and as a second-year man we won varsity letters in the

The Suburbans started in the first inning. With one down Graham of Somerville hit for two bases and took third on the left fielder's error. Arthur Wilson of Newton singled to left to score Graham with the sole Suburban tally.

In the fourth the Mystics came through. Lowder of Arlington hit through Hall for a single. Shea of Woburn sacrificed, Hall to Fletcher. McDonough of Woburn fouled out to Pagliucca, Everett catcher, for the Suburbans. Lee hit a hot one which bounced off Wilson's shins for a single when the scored Lowder. nine on last Friday evening at the Russell Hoyt field, 6 to 1. The locals got right back onto the winning path again Wednesday evening by nosing out the Hoyt Cardinals, 7 to 6, at Victory field. In last Friday's game with the University Club Spencer deMille, former Newton high captain had little difficulty turning back the opponents, fanning six. Hickey's home run in the first inning with two out and none on featured the game. It was the longest hit on the field in several seasons. Bill Hough was on the mound for the Town Club in Sunday's game at Marlboro and had the game well in hand but for a ninth inning home run by Baker, former Holy Cross player, the Marlboro pitcher. Wednesday night's contest with the Hoyt Cardinals was a neck and neck affair until the seventh inning when the Hoyt pitcher blew up, passed two men, and deMille ended
the game with a slashing triple.

Gilligan Catches For Harvard Yale unexpectedly defeated Harvard in two straight games this week in their annual commencement week series. The first game was at New Haven on Tuesday and Yale knocked Howard Whitmore out of the box to take an early lead and finally win out 16 to 1. Gilligan, in right field, failed to get a hit. In Wednesday's game at Soldiers Field the former Newton star athlete connected safely once in five attempts. He also started one double play by grabbing Taylor's fly and throwing to the plate on a try to get the runner scoring from third. Donaghy cut off the throw and pegged to second getting Hoben there, as it was too late to get Aldrich at the plate. In the ninth Gilligan went behind the bat for the Crimson, the first time in a regular game this season. With a runner on third and the squeeze play on McHale tossed to Gilligan who blocked the plate magnificently to retire Grove, Yale outfielder and one of the fastest men in college ball.

EDITORIAL

Returning to the Editorial Desk, after an absence of several months, we note with satisfaction that Capt. Sinclair Weeks president of the board of aldermen will be a candidate for mayor at the city election in December. An able son of a distinguished father, Capt. Weeks has inherited a goodly amount of executive ability, to which he has added a fine military record during the war, and a wide experience with large business corporations since the war.

It is high time that there should be a change at City Hall. For fifteen years we were employed at City Hall under six different mayors and we can recall that on the advent of each new mayor, the heads of each department made a special effort to make a good impression upon the new chief executive. In addition each new mayor generally brought a new point of view to the work of the several departments and thereby increased their efficiency. and thereby increased their efficiency For the past sixteen years there has been no change in the office of mayor been no change in the office of mayor and in consequence the work of the city departments has had no incentive for improved and up-to-date methods. Does anyone believe, for instance, that if we had a new mayor during the past few years that the streets of Newton would not have been constructed to meet modern traffic conditions thus ending the need to continue the present objectionable methods of tarring?

We believe that the election of Capt. Weeks as mayor would bring about

We believe that the election of Capt. Weeks as mayor would bring about many important changes for the better administration of city affairs in the departments coming directly under the mayor's control.

LOW RECREATION COSTS

The average per capita cost of organized public recreation in 402 cities of the United States and Canada of 10,000 or more population in 1928 was fifty-seven cents, according to the Year Book of the Playground and Recreation Association of America which has recently been published.

In the sixteen largest cities the cost ran to seventy-eight cents and in the 112 smallest cities, about thirty-six 112 smallest cities, about thirty-six cents.

"This investment in health-giving, character-building play and recreation is small compared with the average annual outlay for luxuries," says the Association. "Conservative estimates on the expenditure for chewing gum and soft drinks give $19.00 per capita, and for tobacco $14.00.

Large gains in facilities and leadership for both children's play and adults' recreation were shown in the report. The number of cities reporting organized play showed a gain of fifty-seven over 1927 and brought the total to $72. More than 12,000 playgrounds and indoor recreation centers were in operation last season, 1,113 of them having been opened in 1928 for the first time.

"American youth and adults have at their service 6,930 outdoor playgrounds under leadership and an unknown number of others lacking leaders. There are 402 community buildings, 267 public golf courses, and 363 bathing beaches.

"Baseball, which is steadily increasing beaches.

"Baseball, which is steadily increasing in popularity under municipal auspices, was played on 3,303 public fields Besides, there are 1,563 athletic fields 937 swimming pools, and numerous other facilities."

337 swimming pools, and numerous other facilities.

"In spite of large increases in facilities and paid leaders, the 1928 expenditure of $31,740,851.61 fell below that of 1927. However, it was eleven million dollars more than the outlay five years ago. Ninety per cent of the expenditure for public play last year was from tax funds, the report shows. Forty-one cities passed bond issues for recreation purposes totalling twenty-two and a half million dollars, and fity-nine play areas worth a million dollars were donated to cities and towns.

"Handcrafts, athletics, water sports, building model aircraft and hiking were among the most popular recrea-tions for children, and golf and tennis ranked high in favor among adults."

Captain Redfield and the Bugle and Drum Corps committee of the Newton Girl Scouts gave a farewell banquet and party to the Corps at Camp Mary Day on Thursday, June 4th. Old members of the Corps as well as present the members were invited and the group sat down to dinner almost fifty strong. After supper the meeting adjourned to the Camp House where Captain Redfield was presented with a lamp as a gift from the Corps and where she in turn gave out attendance wards. The pin for the best scout spirit in the Corps was awarded to Drum Major Amada Lamont of Newtonville. A letter of Commendation, given by the National Standards Comfinite for high character was presented to Drum Major Lamont by Captain Freeman. The meeting was brought to a close by Drummer Eloise Barber, who read amusing and interesting news items from a Newton Graphic of the future, a copy printed in 1939, in which were bits about each and every member of the Newton Girl Scout Bugle and Drum Corps of the present. of the present.

ONE THING AND ANOTHER

Souvenir and autograph collectors from all parts of the world seem to have placed Massachusetts very near the top of their list of destrables. We who live in the Bay State doubtless fail to appreciate how well it is thought of by patriotic people. Former residents who have gene to make their home in the west or south or who have removed to some foreign country have fond memories of their old home and cherish any pleasing reminder of the days gone by. Students of history, young and old, know how rich is Massachusetts in historic associations. These and other reasons explain the great demand for official souvenirs of Massachusetts.

If you don't happen to have learned the fact already there is daily a great number of requests received at the office of the Governor for some plant autograph of His Excellency. Possibly you are familiar with the way many of the more intensive collectors of autographs go about it. If not led the Governor is expected to sign on the Governor is expected to sign on the Governor is expected to sign on the Governor wite on so that the fine. So to speak. Another more recent and improved, provides for a lose leaf taken from one of these books of autographs. It isn't so bulky and doesn't cost so much to mail. However, there is the line for the Governor wite on so that the final accomplishment is quite the same as far as the collection is concerned.

Letters come to the Governor from thildren who want a picture of the State House, from students who want as far as the collection is a splendid entry of the State House, with the transit. However, there is the line for the Governor from there is on the next page a reproduction of the State seal, with the transit on of the motto, "By the sword, she seeks quite peace under liberty."

Then there is brief but ample descriptive matter which tells all about the State House, how it stands on land once owned by the first Governor, John Hancock, when the corner-stone was laid, etc. The ink used in reproducing the seal is blue and gold and that of the folder is buff, thus presenting the Continental colors of buff and blue. To complete the value of this most attractive souvenir is Governor Allen's autograph.

The strength tests for promotion under Civil Service have been aband-oned on recommendation of a commit-tee of leading physicians. These doctee of leading physicians. These doctors didn't think they were necessary for men no longer youthful. The usual requirements for beginners still hold and nobody will be permitted to enter the service of police and fire departments and other branches where strength is required until they go at them all.

I was just thinking how nice it would I was just thinking how nice it would be if the home strength tests could be done away with. Nice, I mean, for the father of a family who still has to go through every-day stunts that would make a fireman of a policeman drop his examination papers on the floor and walk out. Just think what Father does in the morning during the months the heater is in operation. He has to wrestle with coal and ashes and the poker and the lifter and the shovel. There's a whole set of strength tests

There's a whole set of strength tests in the average cellar, and in addition rolling out the barrels for the ashmen. Then he comes upstairs and like as not there are a few odd jobs to be performed with the hammer. Or perhaps it is moving the furniture around to please the head of the house. And it may be that the pictures are to be rearranged or taken down that the walls may be cleaned. If the paperhangers have promised to come, Father is obliged to keep his muscle in action before and after that memorial event, clearing out all the rooms. Possibly the rugs may have to be dragged out and beaten and because the man who does those things hasn't shown up why poor Father is chosen for that duty.

If there is any job really belongs to Father it is the care of the lawn. Nobody understands lawn-mowers and their operations as well as he. He can use the sickle like an expert to trim off the edges of the lawn. Then he has to rake, which, of course, is only good fun, but must be done. I will not mention the care of the garden, but if there is one Father may be depended upon for the strong and heavy lifting in that connection.

It appears that an enumeration of the people who are actually resident upon the territory which lies within a distance of 10 miles upon either bank of the river, with the Cottage Farm bridge as the center, shows a population of not less than 1,620,000. The report says, "Here in the future will probably be found, as now, the bulk of the metropolitan population."

As long as we are called upon as taxpayers to pay Newton's share of the cost of the bridge we might as well learn as much about that structure as we can. That at least is one way to get one's money's worth and another is driving or walking across the bridge itself. It seems that originally it was a toll bridge, constructed by a private corporation some time early in 1800. It was in substantially the same location as the present structure and was operated as a toll bridge by the "Proprietors of the Cambridge and Brook-State government to tell us that we between the wictim of the solder folks have been on the job all day guarding the kiddies of whoopee. It was in substantially the same location as the present structure and was operated as a toll bridge by the "Proprietors of the Cambridge and Brook-line Bridge" until some time in October 1869 when under the provisions of an act of the Legislature of that year it became a public bridge and the tolls were abolished.

Following 1869 and for some years thereafter the bridge was maintained by the city of Cambridge and the town of Brookline. Not many years afterwards Commonwealth avenue, formerly a part of Brookline, became part of Boston and from that date as long as the pile bridge was in existence the bridge was maintained by the city of Cambridge and the city of Boston. It appears that the old railroad bridge, built to run under the larger structure, was first located there in 1848.

It appears that the old railroad bridge, built to run under the larger structure, was first located there in 1848.

"Concluding with a grand display of fireworks in the evening!"

No doubt you have read those words before. It's the big "kick" that is added to celebrations to bring to a fitting climax the day's program. Somehow or other it is one of those features that seems to have survived the years. Possibly there are some who look upon the idea as old-fashioned but nevertheless there is always a crowd on hand to see the pinwheels and skyrockets and the set-pieces touched off. And the same "Oh's" and "Ah's" are uttered each year with amazement and enthusiasm.

What started all this in my mind was the pamphlet put out through the State Department of Public Safety and the State Fire Marshal containing rules and regulations for the keeping, storage, transportation, manufacture, sale and use in this commonwealth of fireworks. I know that it is necessary but one would scarcely think until one had read the several pages of fine print that it required all these inhibitions and prohibitions to carry on the preparations foresthe fullilliment of plans for a "grand display of fireworks in the evening!"

O, yes, I know very well that the public isn't to be trusted and there must by some stiff rules set down or the preparations for the prediction of the set of the protection of the control of the property as private.

plans for a "grand display of fireworks in the evening!"

O, yes, I know very well that the public isn't to be trusted and there must by some stiff rules set down or we would have destructive fires and serious accidents in nearly every neighborhood. And I can understand why the State has to keep several jumps ahead of the people who try to think up novel schemes for making noises and creating illumination. One of the rules says, "Cigars or cigarettes containing any explosive material shall

Confound It No Telephone

"Why didn't I remember to have that telephone reconnected? Nothing to eat in the house-nothing to do-nobody to talk to. A great way to wind up a vacation!"

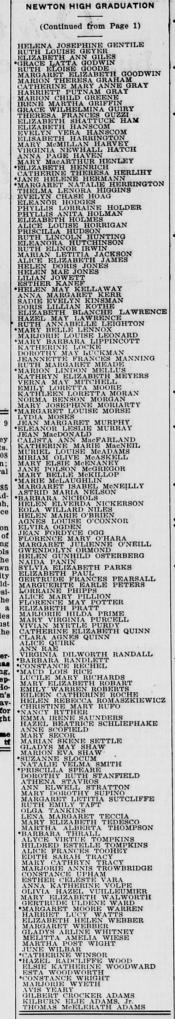

Instead of having your telephone removed for the summer, let us "put it on suspended service." This will gua you prompt reconnection when you return. Most likely it will retain for you your present number, and keep your listing in the Directory.

When you give your order for suspended service, tell us the date on which you want service restored. Then it will be ready when you return from your vacation.

Suspended service rates are just half your usual monthly rate. There is no charge for restoring service when you return.

On Tuesday at Norumbega Park crippled children from the Peabody Home at Oak Hill were the guests of the Riverside Woman's Club. About 50 little sufferers attended and were accorded the freedom of the various attractions at the park through the courtesy of Manager Will White. Others who contributed to the happiness of the children were the Waldorf Restaurant at the park, Mr. Prior who operates the launch on the river and members of the Newton Kiwanis Club. Twelve members of the Riverside Woman's Club in charge of Mrs. William E. Pike supervised the affair. Home at Oak Hill were the guests of

A class party for the graduates of the Class of 1929 was held in the hall on Friday night, June 14. The teachers of the class, Miss Katharine C. Sullivan and Mrs. Anna B. Shue, were hostesses and Mrs. Frank Fanning was the honorary guest. The program opened with a grand march. A variety of games followed interspersed with class singing and piano solos by Kathleen Murray, Frederick Hoey, Rose Abrey, Priscilla Alden and Eva Buttaro. Readings were given by John Graves, Audrey Cooper and Helen Halleck. Rose Abrey read an original poem. Refreshments were served and then the class history was read by Jennie Hershfield and the class prophecy given in two parts by Timothy O'Leary and John Savignano. The following pupils have been altheyear honor pupils: Grade 8, Nora Mahoney Jennie Hershfield, Audrey Cooper; Grade 7, Thomas Lombardo, Francis Meehan, Vaughan Shedd; Grade 6, Marjorie Foster, Mary Schlarevick; Grade 5, John Smith, Dorothy Morris, Anita Gouthro, Margaret Cotter, Daniel Azullino, Martin Daley, Francis Yates, Helen Oldfield, Irving Lundquist; Grade 4, Betty Warren, Esther Cartier, Rodman Feinchbaugh, Gertrude Wood, Jennie Panella, Helen Eyre, Beatrice Cashman, John Walker.

The number of pupils with perfect attendance for the entire year, not absent, not tardy, not dismissed, is 51 which is almost 10 per cent of the enrollment.

CLASS DAY AT PAROCHIAL HIGH

Class Day at the High School of Our Lady was observed joyfully Tuesday afternoon by the classes of 1928 and 1929. The graduates of 1928 received a cordial welcome by their former teachers and fellow graduates as well as graduates of 1929. The gym in which they had their banquet was beautifuly decorated in school colors and a five piece orchestra consisting of pupils of the High School assisted in entertaining. The Rev. Lawrence W. Slattery, Rev. Russell T. Haley,
Rev. Robert M. Mantle and Rev. Daniel Riordan were present. Rev. Lawrence W. Slattery addressed the graduates and said he was happier then than he ever was during his career.
Songs were rendered and class prophecles were read by members of the graduating class. The orchestra furnished music for dancing. The pleasant event closed with a friewell song to Our Lady's School.

The many friends of Mr. W. Harry Slade were shocked to hear of his sudden death on Monday, June 17th. His death was caused by sunstroke while at his summer home in Duxbury, where he was with his wife spending the day.

Mr. Slade had been connected with the firm of C. D. Kepner Leather Company for the past 27 years and was a man of unusual ability and foresight and had a brilliant future before him. To have him cut down so suddenly at this early age is a great shock to his family as well as his friends.

He is survived by his wife and two boys, W. Harry Slade, Jr., 18, and Kenneth Slade, 17. He had resided at 13 Ashton place, Newton Centre, for the past 12 years.

Funeral services were held at his late home yesterday afternoon at 2 p. m., Rev. John C. Wingest officiating. Burial was in Newton Cemetery.

MRS. HARRIET H. CHANDLER

Funeral services for Mrs. Harriet H. Chandler of 77 Maple street, Auburndale, wife of Willmond K. Chandler, were held Wednesday afternoon at her late residence. Rev. Cornellus Clark of the Auburndale Church officiated and burial was in Newton Cemetery. Mrs. Chandler was born in Hadley 68 years ago and had resided in this city for 43 years. She is survived by her husband and one daughter, Mrs. Gladys Reynolds.

Graphic Outlines of History By BURT M. RICH

Robert Fulton with the aid of Livingston, built the first practical steamboat in America. His enterprise was greeted by jeers when his first attempt to start the craft failed. He proved his theory in steam, however, by making a trip from New York to Albany and back in 72 hours. From that time on, steam navigation forged ahead and the U. S. soon became a power in merchant marine.

A skillfully trained staff of experts relieve the family of endless details.

ROTARY CLUB

The meeting of the Newton Rotary Club was held on Tuesday at the Needham Golf Club in a joint session with the Needham club. Charles Burleigh of the General Electric Company and a member of the Boston Rotary Club was the speaker. His subject, "Friendship and Acquaintances" proved to be one of the most interesting the local club has heard this season. It was the first joint meeting the Needham club has had since receiving its charter about a month ago and a very cordial welcome to the Newton Rotarians was extended. David Murdock, president of the Needham club, presided.

WIN PRIZES AT FLOWER SHOW

The annual exhibition of iris and other flowers was held last Sunday at Horticultural hall, Boston. Mr. Thomas F. Donahue of Newton Lower Falls displayed an exhibit containing peonies and iris. He was awarded three firsts, and one second prize in the iris exhibits and received a vote of thanks for his vase of Iris Swazi. Mrs. R. M. Saltonstall of Chestnut Hill won many prizes for her exhibits of Pelargoniums, Campanula, Digitalis, Gloxinias, and Fuchslas.

ITALIAN FIESTA

Marquis Ferrante, for some years past Italian consul in Boston, but who is leaving on Sunday for his new post at Ottawa, Canada, will be the guest of honor at the Italian Flesta to be held on Saturday, June 22, at 4 P. M. by the children of the North Bennet Street Industrial School on the spacious grounds of the Whiting Estate, 11 Washington street, Newton. The Flesta is open to the public, and the proceeds will be used to send mothers and children from the hot North End to the School's summer camp at Boxford.

These same children recently took part in a dancing festival at the Newton Centre Women's Club House, and so enthusiastically was their dancing received, that they have been asked to repeat it out of doors. New dances and Italian novelties planned especially for the Fiesta will be added to the program for the outdoor performance.

Mrs. Frank P. Scofield of 18 Vernon street, Newton, is chairman of the committee in charge, which includes also Mrs. Henry M. Bliss, Miss Katherine Homans, Mrs. Henry L. Higginson, Mrs. George H. Lyman, Jr., Mrs. Henry Lyman, Mrs. Holden McGinley, Miss Mary Williams, and Miss Ethel A. Forbes.

KIWANIS CLUB

The Newton Kiwanis Club held its weekly meeting on Tuesday at the Old Venice Restaurant, Norumbega Park. Guests were present from Michigan and Arizona and a talk on Aviation and its attendant problems was given by Edmund T. Duncan, Assistant to the Vice President of the Curtiss Flying Service and commander of Newton Post 48, American Legion.

Mr. Duncan emphasized the necessity of marking cities and towns to assist aviators in determining their location and suggested the establishment of emergency landing fields in every community with a view to reducing some of the hazards of aviation. He announced that through the coperation of Will White member of the Newton Kiwanis Club and manager of Norumbega Park, that one of the buildings at the Park will have the name of the city painted on the roof. The only other building so marked in the City of Newton is the State Armory at West Newton. Mr. Duncan outlined in a very interesting way the development of aerial passenger service and suggested the possibility of residents of Newton going on a fishing trip to Rangeley Lakes and returning on the same day. At the close of his address the speaker was tendered a rising vote of thanks.

Clem Hernandez, chairman of the Committee on Finance was called to

City Employees Hold Their Annual Outing

The Annual Outing of the Newton City Hall Associates took place on June 25th at Salem Willows. The group, numbering about one hundred, left from City Hall at 12:15 and arrived for their shore and chicken dinners at Swenbeck's at 1:30.

Entertainment which consisted of plano and vocal selections and vaudeville sketches was furnished during the dinner. The Mayor made a few remarks, after which the opportunity prizes were awarded.

After dinner the crowd gathered at the athletic field to participate in many sports. These sports were as follows:

Handicap race won by team of Frank Grant, Al. Morse and Ebba Carlson.

Carlson.

Relay race won by the men—team consisting of Paul Mullen, George Rogers, Frank Grant, Irving House, Charlie Mahoney, Arthur Campbell and Albert Morse.

50-yard dash for men won by George Rogers.

Rogers.
50-yard dash for girls won by Rose Feldberg.

Feldberg.
Tug of war won by team of:
Charles Mahoney, Michael Purcell, Paul Mullen, Richard Murphy, and

Charles Mallen, Richard Murphy, and George Rogers.
3-legged race for girls won by Rose Feldberg and Eleanor Hannigan.
3-legged race for men won by Bill Chadwick and Arthur Gates.
2nd 50-yard dash for girls won by Beatrice O'Conneil.
2nd 50-yard dash for men won by Bill Chadwick.
The Mayor awarded the prizes for these sports.
Later in the afternoon, many took the boat ride along the shore while others took advantage of the swimming.

others took advantage of the swimming.

The affair was considered the biggest and best ever, and was ably managed by the following committee:
Leon Mayer, President; Theresa Goddard, Secretary-Treasurer; Ebba Carlson; John Feeney, the chairman of affairs; Allice Kennery, Frank Grant, and George Stuart.

Among those present were Aldermen Gordon, Powers, Woodcock and Hawkins. Park Commissioner Oliver Pratt, of Salem was a guest.

HURT IN AUTO CRASHES

Yesterday noon a sedan operated by Ethel Barron of 128 Valentine street, West Newton, was stopped at the railroad crossing at Beaver Brook on Main street, Waltham, as a train was passing when a truck crashed into it. The truck was owned by the Malcolm Motor Company of Boston and driven by Frank Stobin. Mrs. Cyra Janes, who was riding in the Barron car, was cut about the head. The sedan was badly damaged.

At Kirkland and Divinity streets, Cambridge, on Wednesday night a truck operated by Stafford Hennigor of Danvers and a car driven by Lucille Defren of 289 Park street, Newton, collided. The Defren car was pushed into a car driven by William Richardson of 228 Highland street, West Newton. George Defren of 289 Park street was injured. He was taken to the Cambridge Hospital for treatment and later taken to the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital.

Contracts for painting the Classical High School, Emerson School, Eliot School, Street Department stables on Auburndale avenue and Truck 2 house at Newton Highlands have been awarded to Albert D. Howlett Company. Other painting contracts awarded are—Burr School, Newton Centre playground building and Truck 1 house at Newtonville, Johnson-Nordstrom Company; Oak Hill and Angier Schools, J. Mannos & Sons; Horace Mann School, Johnson-Foster Company; Newton Technical high school, M. L. McDonald; F. A. Day School, J. W. Graham & Son.

ROTARY CLUB

The Monday noon meeting of the Newton Rotary Club was held as usual at the Woodland Golf Club. President Arthur Ellis, who was a delegate to the recent convention in Dallas, Texas, presided and gave a talk on his trip to those present. There are now over 3000 Rotary clubs in 52 different countries of the world. The directors of the Newton Club elected the following officers for the ensuing year to begin next Monday; Charles Ansley, President; Dr. Edward Mellus, vice-president; Alden Keene, treasurer; L. A. Bruce, Jr., secretary; Will Ross, sergeant-at-arms. Benjamin Rae was awarded the silver loving cup offered as the prize in the recent golf tournament for the championship of the club. George Martin was the runner-up. The winner of the consolation prize has not been determined.

C. Hill Imp. Society Has Brilliant Dinner

The Commonwealth Country Club, Chestnut Hill, furnished a colorful scene Wednesday evening, when about 75 ladies and their escorts attended the second of the dinners given by the Chestnut Hill Improvement Society. 6 Dutchie-Strachan, President of the Society, announced the intent of the Organization to sponsor the Newton Arboretum and bird sanctuary as one of its essential activities during the coming months.

"The Society." he stated in part.

"The Society," he stated in part 'likewise seeks an extension of Algon quin road; a resurfacing of certair streets; a change in lighting facilities and in traffic regulations on Common wealth avenue and a beautitying of the entire Waban Hill district, particular ly the reservoir section."

If the reservoir section."

He then introduced the Hon. Leverett Saltonstall, Speaker of the House of Representatives, who presided as toastmaster in brilliant fashion.

Mr. Saltonstall first presented Hon. Edwin O. Childs, Mayor of Newton, who praised the Society for its attainments and its aggressiveness and warmly endorsed the new plans. Mayor Childs then felicitated the Secretary of the Society, William E. Soule, one of his old classmates and presented to Mr. and Mrs. Soule a silver set on behalf of the Society and friends, in recognition of their silver wedding anniversary. Secretary Soule made a graceful speech of acceptance.

Sinclair Weeks, President of the set on behalf of the Society and friends, in recognition of their silver wedding anniversary. Secretary Soule made a graceful speech of acceptance. Sinclair Weeks, President of the Newton Board of Aldermen who recently announced his candidacy for Mayor, spoke very interestingly of the development and growth of the Garden City, and of the valuable aid rendered by the Society, and endorsed the broader purpose for the benefit of the whole city.

Other speakers were Hon. Fred W. Cook, Secretary of State; Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols, Mayor of Boston; and E. A. MacLaughlin, Jr., Vice-President of the Society; who outlined the accomplishments and further purposes of the Society.

Col. Carroll J. Swan, of the famous Yankee Division, one of the ushers at the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Soule 25 years ago, made some amusing references to the occasion.

CITY HALL NEWS

City Comptroller Daniel White, acting for the Retirement Board which is conducting the contributory pension system for employees of the City of Newton, has notified about 25 of the older employees who have not joined the system that unless they do so before Saturday of this week they will lose the credit for their past years of service and will have the status only of new employees. The city contributes about 50% of the pension based on the number of years city contributes about 50% of the pen-sion based on the number of years those affiliated with the system have served the city. The first year of the system ends this week, therefore the notice from Mr. White.

Begin Summer Safety Campaign In State

on Playgrounds

On the first day of July—in time to learn all about how to keep the Fourth safe and sane—30,000 children in Eastern Massachusetts, including 2000 in Newton, will become subscribers to the Playground Safety News, and will continue to receive it every two weeks during the summer.

It will have original songs, stories, acrostics, and slogans—such as "A child safe at play keeps an accident away."

All this is a part of the plan worked out by a committee of playground directors in co-operation with the Massachusetts Safety Council, for an inter-city campaign to carry on the instruction of children in safe habits until the schools reopen in September. The Massachusetts Council gives a warm endorsement of the value of the playgrounds in keeping children out of the streets, and urges that all parents who are not able to furnish safe play room in the vard at home, send their children there. To stimulate the attendance, the Playground Safety News is to offer a new safety button to every child in this city who brings a new child to the playground, or who performs an act of safety during the summer months.

As to the value of this playground safety work, the Massachusetts Safety Council says:

"In nearly all the cities that have given safety instruction on the playgrounds in addition to the safety work carried on in the schools there was a marked improvement in children's accidents last year. In Boston there was a marked improvement in children's accidents last year. In Boston there was a marked improvement in children's accidents last year. In Boston there was a marked improvement in children's accidents and while non-fatals among adults increase in adult accidents was 208, but among children it was 18. In Waitham adults increased 123, and children 28. In Newton adults increased 227 and children onn fatals among children decreased, and Salem reduced the fatals by three and increased its children's non fatals by only 12, as against 110 for adults."

The annual meeting of the Auxiliary of the Woman's Home Missionary Society was held in the Parish Hall of the First Methodist Episcopal Church Tuesday afternoon. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. Frank Redmond; Vice President, Mrs. Joseph Shaw; Recording Secertary, Mrs. C. E. Nuter; Treasurer, Mrs. A. D. Colf by; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. C. E. Stata; Chairman of Mother's Jewels, Mrs. Willard McKenzie; Chairman of Home Guards, Mrs. G. Vaughn Shedd; Chairman of Queen Esther's, Mrs. Joseph Shaw.

The afternoon was spent very pleasantly by sewing for the Tooper Community of Boston.

KIWANIS CLUB

The Newton Kiwanis Club met jointly with the Brookline Club on Tuesday at Norumbega Park. President Whalin read a telegram received from James P. Gallagher who is at the Kiwanis Convention at Milwankee. Frank S. Damon of Damon Hall School was the speaker at the meeting. He talked on "Business and Reparations." Mr. Damon took the view that Europe and the United States are so closely related by modern means of communication that the prosperity of one is interdependent on that of the other. The failure of Germany to pay her war debts effects the prosperity of each individual in this country and the settlement of the war reparations problem will be catalyte reflected. war reparations problem will be quickly reflected in this country by Charles H. Loomis of Newton, for-merly of Medford, has resigned as a director of the Medford Co-operative Bank after 40 years consecutive serv-

Bank after 40 years consecutive service as a director of that rapidly growing and flourishing band. His resignation was received with regret.

Mr. Loomis resigned because of his health and because of the distance which he now lives from Medford.

Mr. Loomis was formerly city clerk of Medford. He was a resident of Oakland street, corner of Oakland park, and has always taken an active interest in Medford affairs. He was president of the first Common Council of Medford in 1893 and was reelected in 1894 serving under Medford's first mayor, Gen. Samuel C. Lawrence. He was succeeded in Ward 3 in the Council of 1895 by the late City Treasurer, Edward A. Badger.

A meeting of the Jefferson Club of tewton will be held in Dennison Hall, tewtonville, Friday evening, June 28,

ELROD ELECTED NEWTON CAPTAIN

Last week Thursday evening the nembers of the Newton High school baseball team, Suburban League chamions the past season, the coaches, John L. Sullivan and "Jeff" Jones, rainer Frank Simmons, faculty manger Dr. Oscar Martin and the student managers were the guests of Mr. Howard P. Fletcher, father of Alexander Fletcher, captain of the team at a dinner at the Boston City club. The affair was in recognition of the eague title for the second successive eague title for the second successive the complex of the language of the language subustices. Following the dinner the letter men rear. The Newton nine won all but one of its league games.

Following the dinner the letter men elected Perry Elrod as the 1930 captain. Owing to the new state ruling which becomes effective in September that no athlete may represent a school after his fourth year Newton high loses all of its letter men except Elrod. The new captain entered last year from California and this was his first year on the baseball team. He played the outfield at the beginning of the season and again at the end of the schedule after Bill Reilly became over age. During the early part of the season he got on bases more frequently than any other player on the squad and in several games scored two or more runs without having been credited with a time at bat.

Although the loss of such men as Phil Andres, Charles Barry, Bartlett Nichols, and Johnny Mullen, all cf whom have another year at Newton before eligible to receive diplomas, will force a difficult problem onto the Newton coaches there are several likely-looking prospects who played upon the intermediate varsity team the past three months.

SPORT NOTES

Burr Club Wins from Boston Y

The Burr Club of Newton won from the Boston Y tennis team last Saturday in old Colony league match at the Y grounds on Huntington avenue, 7 to 2. Don Martin, former B. U. captain; Abbot Gotshall, former teammate of Martin's, Sylvester, and Broughton each won their singles matches. Gotshall had the greatest difficulty in a three-set match, 13—11, 4—6, 6—3. In the doubles matches Martin and Gotshall were the only local winners, as Sylvester and Broughton and Anderson and Canter were defeated by their Hub opponents.

Newton Men Win

Several Newton men shared in the honors at the races of the Metropolitan Club last Saturday. The Thompson brothers, Dr. J. D. and Dr. C. A each had a winning trotter. The former's was the Rhode Island bred May Cromwell and the latter's Bessle Shaw Cromwell and the latter's Bessle Shaw

1929 Defeats 1928

The 1929 Defeats 1928

The 1929 All-scholastic team chosen by the Boston Post defeated the 1928 All-team at Dilboy Field last Saturday in a benefit game for the Post Santa Claus fund, 8 to 7. Arthur Wilson, Newton third baseman, was the only local youth to take part in the game although Fletcher, Newton captain was slated to play part of the game at first for the 1929 outfit and Frank Spain was expected to play short for last year's outfit. The 1928 team began in the first inning to chalk up a win with a six-run rally. It looked large at the time. In the second 1929 scored twice to start its uphill fight. In the sixth Wilson poled the ball into Alewife brook for a home run to cut down the 1928 margin to three runs. Last year's team countered with a lone tally in the first of the seventh but when 1929 took its turn the first batter singled, the next walked and Redden hit a home run for three runs to put his team right back in the game, only one run behind. In the ninth two men got on base with one down and Crowley of Boston English hit a slashing triple to right center for two runs and the game.

Y Nine Wins From Weston

Y Nine Wins From Weston
The Newton Y baseball team continues to set a fast pace. Wednesday evening they downed the Weston Town Team, 5 to 2 in a seven-inning game on the Y field. A triple by Horace White with the bases filled in the sixth inning was good for three runs. In the first of the fifth with the score knotted at one each the Weston outfit filled the bases with none down. Hokanson, Newton pitcher, fanned the next two batters and none down. Hokanson, Newton pitchen, fanned the next two batters and the third hit an easy infield grounder for the third out at first. The Y took the lead in the last of the fifth when White drew a pass, stole second, went to third on the catcher's throw past second base, and came home on Harry Gray's timely single

You Can Buy Graham-Paige Quality at $QK

MANY people are surprised to learn that Graham-Paige quality can be purchased for as little as $855, at factory.

The 612, with prices beginning at this figure, is a large, powerful automobile.

When you lift the hood, you see a big engine-delivering 62 horseassured by good balance. A sevenbearing crankshaft (21/2 inches in diameter) is supported by a rigid motor block. Water jackets extend clear to the bottom of every cylinder, giving complete and uniform cooling for dependable performance and long life.

Theinternal expanding hydraulic brakes, protected from dirt and water, are larger than usual in a car at this price. Brake drums are machined absolutely true, insuring contact for the full surface of the brake shoes on all four wheels. This means less need adjustments and relining, and greater security through more efficient braking.

The emergency brake is entirely separate, giving the protectionwhich we believe essential-of two independent braking systems. All through the 612, you will find extra size, weight and strength. Everyone of its 3,125 pounds contributes directly to better performance and increased comfort and safety of its passengers. The bodies are roomy and beautifully finished. Upholstery is genuine mohair, with a guaran-

Alfred King of 61 Gardner street, Newton was in the Newton court on Saturday charged with committing assault and battery on Frederic Walker. King, a contractor, had purchased an automobile truck and had financed it through the General Motors Acceptance Company. He failed to meet a payment on the truck and on June 4th it was re-possessed by the finance company, a representative of the company going to the Brook Street garage at Newton Corner and sefzing the truck. Walker, a chauffeur for a Needham garage, was driving the truck along Centre street and just after passing the traffic signal at the intersection of Beacon and Centre streets at Newton Centre a coupe came along which contained King as a passenger. The coupe was driven alongside the truck and King jumped from the running board of the smaller vehicle onto the running board of the smaller vehicle onto the running to shut off the switch of the truck he caused Walker to lose control of the vehicle and it crashed into a tree. King claimed the truck was being driven on his number plates but Walker testified that the garage plates had been fastened on over King's plates. King was injured in the accident and was taken to the Newton Hospital where he spent several days. Francis Roche of 62 Hawthorn street, Newton was sentenced to 60 days in jail by Judge Bacon on Friday last in the Newton court, Roche was roomer at that address and was found guilty of stealing 25 cents on two occasions from the gas-meter in the house. He was arrested by Sergt. Mahoney and Patrolman Kelly. Newton will have but little influence in the newly constituted Metropolitan Transit District as it will only have two votes in a body of forty members. With only wards one and seven touching the Boston elevated system the Legislature acted in a most arbitary manner in including the whole city in the transit district.

—It is said that it takes fourteen muscles to make a frown, and only six to make a smile. If such is the case there should be an enormous subscription list for the Massachusetts Safety Council News at the price of "just a smile."

—The attempt to save money by substituting crushed stone for a more permanent pavement in front of the new fire station at Newton, is another case of being "penny wise and pound foolish."

By Edw. H. Powers

Not so many years ago it was taken as an accepted fact that everyone going to Europe desired to go the end of June or early July, and return in the middle of September in time for the opening of school and other activities.

"There is a noticeable drift away from this routine," stated Mr. F. J. Reuter. Passenger Manager of the White Star and Red Star Lines in a recent interview. "It appears that many people prefer to change their vacation time in order to do their traveling in Europe in a more leisurely fashion and without the accompaniment of the inevitable congestion that exists during the height of the season. They are also learning that it can be done less expensively."

"In view of the demand for this

"In view of the demand for this type of service which developed last year we are again arranging for an other personally conducted 30-day all expense tour leaving Boston on the Cedric September 15 visiting many of the interesting places in six countries including the beautiful Lakes of Killarney, Dublin, two days motoring through England, the Shakespeare Country, London, picturesque Holland, Brussels, and Paris, returning on the World Cruise steamer Belgenland from Cherbourg."

Newton water for sometime past has contained much sediment. We don't know whether it is Crenothrix or not, but, whatever it is, this foreign matter in Newton's drinking (and washing) fluid does not cause one to become more anxious to quaff it. Commissioner Whitney states that since the hot weather has set in the increased use of water in Newton has neccessitated taking water from the Metropolitan system to meet the deriving the pipes has loosened whatever sediment has gathered during the period Newton water was being used exclusively, or sediment which may have remained in the mains.

Many citizens have expressed their feeling regarding the method used in surfacing the yard in front of the new fire station at Newton Corner. According to popular opinion the proper thing to have done would have been to have covered the surface with cement. Instead grayel and crushed stone were to have done would have been to have covered the surface with cement. Instead gravel and crushed stone were used. The principal objection is occasioned by the fact that no provision was made to protect pedestrians. Where formerly sidewalks were located along the east side of Centre avenue and the corner of Centre avenue and Washington street is now a highway. Not only is the surface uncertain and uncomfortable for people on foot but it invites autoists to use it as a very convenient place in which to turn their cars around or make cross-cuts while traveling to or from the bridge. Hundreds of persons must cross this spot going and coming from the railroad station and scores of school children walk across this place daily. A sidewalk should be built where one was formerly located at the approach to the bridge. And it should be raised sufficiently above the street to deter automobiles from being driven over it. from being driven over it.

Ancient Writers Had Idea of Punctuation

Idea of Punctuation
Our present system of punctuation, which divides written language into sections by means of various signs and points, may be said to have grown out of a system developed by Aldus Manutius, an Italian scholar and printer, who printed Greek classics on his press at Venice in the latter part of the Fifteenth century and the beginning of the Sixteenth. Manutius was born in 1450 and died in 1515. It should not be supposed, however, that Manutius was the sole inventor of punctuation, although the main features of the modern system are due chiefly to his ingenuity and that means of dots.

Prose punctuation of a crude type was probably used even before the time of Aristophanes. In the early part of the Ninth century these earlier systems were so completely forgotten that Charlemagne requested scholars to revive them. St. Jerome, who died 420 A. D., knew nothing whatever about punctuation.—Pathinder Magazine.

Effect of Light on Flowers and Plants

Spring violets have been made to bloom in the summer simply by cut-ting down their ration of daylight to the length of a spring day. The extra heat of summer had no effect on the heat of summer and no elect of the growth of the plant.

In this controlling of plant growth, artificial light has the same effect as sunlight or the light of a greenhouse, and twelve hours of light (whether natural or artificial) is "summertime" for the plants, and six hours' light

Two lots of irises were sown in late October; the first were given eighteen hours of light per day, while the others (kept in the same temperature) received only the light provided by nature. The first lot reached normal size very quickly, and actually bloomed on Christmas day, but the others were dormant as late as the following February.

Appropriate Designation

"Amerind" is a telescopic word composed of the first syllables of "American" and "Indian" and is a general term used to designate the races of man who inhabited the New world before the arrival of Europeans. It was suggested in 1899 by Maj. J. W. Powell, director of the bureau of American ethnology, who advocated it as a convenient substitute for the numerous awkward and inappropriate terms applied to the aborigines of America. "Amerind" is pronounced "am-er-ind." with the accent on the first syllable.

Recent Deaths

REV. ROBERT A. HUME, D.D.

Rev. Robert A. Hume, D.D., died on Monday night, June 24 at his late home, 165 Grove street, Auburndale. He was born in Bombay, India, 82 years ago, the son of missionary parents. He studied at Yale College, Yale Seminary and Andover Theological Seminary and Andover Theological Seminary and Andover Theological Seminary. Graduating from the latter institution in 1873 he began service in India under the American Board in 1874.

Dr. Hume was responsible for the erection of many churches and schools in India and was awarded the highest honor that can be accorded a foreigner in that land, being given the Kalser-i-Hind medal. He was elected as the first moderator of the United Church of North India. He was the author of a number of books.

A memorial service for Dr. Hume was held Wednesday afternoon in the Congregational Church at Auburndale. The pastor of the church, Rev. Cornelius E. Clark, conducted the service. Testimonials to Dr. Hume's character and services were offered by Rev. Alden H. Clark, D. D., just returned from Ahmednagar, India; Rev. James L. Barton, D.D., secretary emeritus of the American Board, and Rev. Shepherd Knapp of the Central Congregational Church, Worcester, which church supported Dr. Hume in his work. A quartet which included Rev. Enoch F. Bell, D.D., and Rev. R. Brewer Eddy, D.D., both American Board secretaries, also Rev. Asa M. Parker, secretary for missionary promotion of the Massachusetts Congregational conference and missionary society, and Harold B. Belcher, sang old hymns which were loved by the Hume family.

A brief service was conducted in Mt. Auburn Chapel by Rev. Edward Fairbanks, Vadala, India, now on furlough, who is the brother of Mrs. Hume, and senior member of the Marathi Mission.

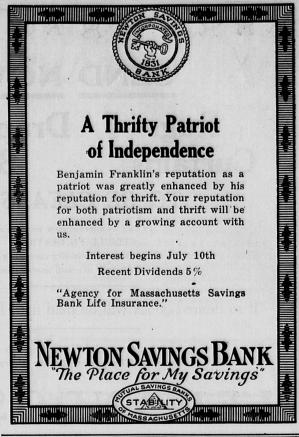

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Katie F. Hume of Auburndale; four Seminary, New York City; Mrs. Hannah Hume Lee, woman's secretary of the Department of Social Relations of the Congregational Education Society, Boston; Wilson McClanghery Hume, Y. M. C. A. secretary in Lahore, India; Henry Woods

Man Far Outnumbered by Lesser Creatures

It is probable that few persons save naturalists ever consider the enor-mous amount of life other than humous amount of life other than human which exists in any locality, civilized or not, densely peopled or thinly settled. A plague of rats in London within recent years prompted an interview with a distinguished scientist, who estimated that within the area of Greater London there were 20,000,000 rats, more than three times as many rats as people.

Sparrows undoubtedly come next in point of numbers among London's warm-blooded population, but the scientist preferred to make his estimate cover all the birds in the United Kingdom. He believed that the bird Kingdom. He believed that the bird population would average 800 to the square mile. That would give a total of nearly 97,000,000. Thus the bird population outnumbers the human by something like two to one.

something like two to one.

As for the insect population, that is quite beyond any statistician. But, allowing that each bird eats only 50 insects a day, British birds would consume more than a billion insects in a year. Yet such an estimate seems out that the whon we consider that the year. Yet such an estimate seems quite futile when we consider that the insect population of a single cherry tree infested with aphides was estimated by a competent authority to be 12,000,000.

The Egyptians who built the Pyramids, so the legend goes, and the ancient Incas, both knew how to suspend the law of gravity, having learned it from the mystics of the lost Atlantis.

The late Loie Fuller on her last American visit complained to a re-porter about the conceit of movie porter about the concelt of movie stars.

"The males are the worst," she said, "A young male star in a seal-skin-lined overcoat, smoking a dollar and a half cigar, swaggered into his boss' office one day and said:

"'I'll tell you, boss, how I want you to feature me on the bills. I want the names of the cast printed in the usual way in rather small type, and then in giant type'—he raised his voice to a shout—'MY NAME under the word AND.'

"'Why not BUT?' said the boss."

There had been the usual crowd in anticipation of a scrap, but it had drifted away when they saw there was nothing doing. Even the police-was nothing doing. Even the poince-man admitted it was the tamest ar-rest he had made for many a day. "It isn't like you to go so quietly," he remarked. "What's taken all the ginger out of you?" The prisoner sighed. "I've got my best clothes on."

Explains Fire-Walking

The late S. P. Langley of the Smith sonian institution witnessed the fire walking ceremony in Tahiti and de scribed it in Nature for August 22 1921. He says that the stones used in the ceremony were tested and found to be of vesicular basalt, whose most distinctive features are its porosit; and nonconductibility. He found that these stones could be heated red-hot at one end while the remaining part was comparatively cool. He was of the opinion that while the lower stones of the pit were glowing, the upper layer was fairly cool.

Such has been the history of America, the greatest country on the earth! With the indomitable courage of our heroes in times of war, the loyalty and endurance of our countrymen through many a crisis, and the hope and faith of those who stood together in the darkest hours as a background, I can say that I have the greatest confidence in my country and its government. If firmly believe in its justice, its wise laws, its power to enforce these laws, its honesty, and fix integrity. I have unshaken faith in the ability and good intentions of those who make our laws. They are working for our good. We must cooperate with them and help to keep the past upon its throne. We must keep tryst with those who have gone before.

In return for this confidence I, as The close of this academic year at Wellesley was marked by the retirement from regular teaching of one of the most distinguished members of its staff, Professor Mary Whiton Cakins of the department of philosophy and psychology whose home is at 22 Bellevue street, Newton. Miss Calkins retires at this time by her own choice in view of home responsibilities and privileges, and is still in the full flower of her ability to teach. During the 40 years of her service, hundreds of students have profited by her peculiar ability to make her pupils think for themseives. Although her courses have been regarded as rigorous, she has nevertheless succeeded in maintaining (to use a phrase of her own) "a drawing-room atmosphere," in class—an atmosphere in which students express themselves readily and talk themselves clear. Her conduct of discussions has had elements of the Socratic method, but has lacked its gad-fly sting, and has been supplemented by brilliant and orderly lecturing.

In 1895 Miss Calkins completed at Herward the requirements for the de-WELLESLEY PROFESSOR RETIRES

Miss Margaret K. Adams of 13 Newtonville avenue, a graduate of Newton High School and at present a student at the New England Conservatory of Music is on her way to Europe for the summer, sailing from New York on the North German Livers Steamer "Stuttgart" last Thursday.

"The Cocoanuts," the hilarious muscle comedy success starring the incomparable comedians, the Marx Brothers, considered by many to be the funniest and most talented entertainers on the stage today, will be shown at the Paramount Theatre for four days beginning Sunday, June 30th. Needless to say, the Four Marx Brothers on the stage today, will be shown at the Paramount Theatre for four days beginning Sunday, June 30th. Needless to say, the Four Marx Brothers whose gay, irrepressible anties were responsible for the original success of the "Cocoanuts," play the same roles in this audible screen version as they did in the New York stage presentation. Supporting these famous stars are a number of Broadway favorites, including Mary Eaton and Oscar Shaw who co-starred in the well known muscleal-comedy success, "The Five o'Clock Girl."

ONE THING AND ANOTHER

THE POOR FELLA

Hooray for the man who is going abroad, Who won't have a care on his mind, Who's booked for air-journeys and other delights, With vacation joys unconfined.

the shore,
Who'll get all cool breezes that blow Who'll live in a bathing suit most of the time,
Who frequently fishing will go.

Hooray for the man who will rest at the farm, 'Mid glorious charms of the hills, Who'll motor and golf and eat country food, With freedom from worries and ills.

But pity the man who must stay the job, Who only the city will see, Who can't get away e'en for end— Shake hands with this bozo—-IT'S ME

This is the good old Summer time, we hear so much about, and fortunately for most of us the "nut catcher" is among those who are taking a vacation this season. If he were on his job there are many mortals, oh, very many, who would run up against him during the balmy days of June, July and August.

and August.

I refer, particularly to those rugged souls, who parade the sea-side, the river-side and lake-side, in bathing suits in order to acquire outward evidence of their presence at such resorts, viz: a healthy sun-burn. Not that it isn't all right and proper for them to get their skin singed to the color of a boiled lobster if they so desire. No, indeed, that is nobody's business.

desire. No, indeed, that is nobody's business.

But, what I object to is that they weep and moan and weep and moan some more, when their efforts to acquire a sun-burn meet with success. Many and many a one has come to me looking for sympathy when he couldn't get his shirt on his tortured shoulders.

shoulders.

"G'way from me!" I tell them, "Why don't you keep your precious shoulders out of the sun if you aren't willing to take the consequences of your exposure?"

landing place of the earliest Anglo-Saxon explorers.

Cyrus Eaton, historian of Thomaston, says, "When the bell was rung the old colonial church on the hill was regarded with joy, pride and congratulation by the fathers and mothers of the town as a splendid monument of public spirit and religious reverence, and furnished as it was by the munificence of General Knox with a heavy and fine toned bell whose mellifluous calls to worship were the first heard in all this region, it continued to be cherished as the chief ornament of the place, and attracted admiration as the finest in that part of the country."

The pilgrimage of the bell was for the purpose of helping forward the campaign to complete the fund for the memorial to General Knox, who, it is said by his most devoted and loyal admirers is "unquestionably the most neglected of our Revolutionary leaders". All over the country people who love Maine and want to see the memory of General Knox fittingly honored are striving to raise funds for this memorial and its maintenance. Knowing some of them as I do I have not the slightest doubt but what they attain their goal.

No doubt the Committee on Claims and Rules of the Board of Aldermen has been too busy to have taken up at an earlier date the matter of chang-ing the zoning ordinance. As I recall, the board or the committee has only had the matter before it for about a year. That is, it was before last year's board and this year has hung fire for nearly six months. Well, they are at last getting round to doing something but not at a period when many peeple are in town. However, we mustn't complain because these the nearly one.

As I understand it the Committee to Claims and Rules has adopted a plan whereby public hearings will be granted different communities on different dates. That is a wise idea. Instead of inviting all interested taxpayers to go to City Hall on a certain night or on two or three nights, wards 1 and 7 taxpayers will have their night, wards 2, 3 and 4 theirs, wards 5 and 6 theirs and then there will be a grand free-for-all on the fourth night.

Out of this much good should come. People in wards 1 and 7 know what concerns them and are not likely to be interested in the other parts of the city. The same applies to the other groups of wards as established by the committee will be able to keep the speakers on one track, so to speak, until the fourth night. It should prove more comprehensive and enlightening and much more helpful to the committee in trying to solve the problem.

If I understand the plan correctly the matter to be settled is whether parts of the general residence zone shall be put over into the private residence zone and thus protected permanently from the presence of apartment houses while parts of the general residence zone will be thrown open, if one may say so, to builders of apartment houses who may desire to build there. This latter, it seems, is contingent upon changes in the building laws that are expected to follow.

I am not boosting the apartment house idea for Newton and I am not opposing it. I feel that there are sections of the city from which apartment houses who may desire to build there. This latter, it seems, is contingent upon changes in the building laws that are expected to follow.

I am not boosting the apartment house idea for Newton and I am not don't yon keep your precious shoulders out of the sun if you aren't willing to take the consequences of your exposure?"

On occasions I address them in even stronger language, commenting on the futility of humanity trying to kid itself into thinking that it prefers elemental things to the comfort of civilization.

One friend of mine in particular is a terrible goat-getter as far as sun-burn is concerned. Day in and day out he raves and tears around about the foolishness of women sacrificing so much comfort for the sake of their parpearance. Permanent waves are his particular abomination. It seems that he went to the coffure on one occasions of their fads.

And only once a year do I have an opportunity to get after him. It comes and picturosque figure of himself by acquiring a sporty appearance of the premanent wave only once a year do I have an opportunity to get after him. It comes and picturosque figure of himself by acquiring a sporty appearance of the premanent when he goes wrong again and in agines himself a he-beauty in substitution.

Newton people who claim Maine as their birthplace are among those most interested in the recent pligrimage of New Englands "Liberty Bell". They are not alone, however, in the wide spread desire to see the Knox Memorial Association Inc., achieve its purpose in connection with the display of this famous old bell. When the bell was brought to the State House last week that was the only stop made in Massachusetts in the effort to arouse strong the total propose in connection with the display of this famous old bell.
